The senior class at South High School will revisit the origins of their educational journeys, enjoy their time together as high schoolers for one of the final times, and offer support to the next generation of Bruins as part of their Senior P.R.A.N.K. (People Really Appreciation Nice Kids) Day on Wednesday.

At 8:45 a.m., the seniors will travel to Lewis & Clark Elementary School, Jefferson Elementary School, or Lincoln Elementary School, where they will give back to the schools that kicked off their educational journeys by volunteering at year-end schoolwide events at the elementary schools. They will help at the Jefferson cross country meet, the Lewis & Clark field day, and the Lincoln field day. They will also do graduation walk-throughs of each school with elementary students and staff in the hallway celebrating them.

The seniors will return to South by 11:15 a.m. for a senior picnic outside the school, provided by the administration. They will enjoy each other's company together as a full class for one of the last times before they go their own ways after graduation.
