

St. George's Episcopal School

2025 Summer Reading for Students Entering Seventh Grade

You will read TWO books this summer, one required text and one chosen from the list below.

There is no required written assignment to complete during the summer itself. We will, however, be using these titles as the basis for graded literature activities during the first quarter of 7th grade, so please complete the required books before the first day of school.

REQUIRED TEXT: THE OUTSIDERS

BY S. E. HINTON

ALL RISING 7TH GRADERS SHOULD READ THIS BOOK BEFORE THE FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL.

THERE IS NO WRITTEN ASSIGNMENT TO COMPLETE DURING THE SUMMER.

YOU WILL HAVE GRADED WORK FOR THIS TEXT DURING FIRST QUARTER OF 7TH GRADE.

READING HELP: You are not required to complete a written assignment during the summer, but if you wish to complete some activities to help you keep the book fresh in your mind, you may enjoy one of the following. These activities will NOT be collected or graded!!

- Choose one character to follow as you read. Make annotations about what the character is like at the beginning of the book, key events that cause the character to develop or change, and important changes you see in the character. You might also note questions or challenges the character raises for you as a reader—what does this person's journey make you think about?
- Choose 5 important events in the book to illustrate. Write a couple of sentences for each picture detailing why you think that event is important.

CHOICE TITLES: CHOOSE ONE OF THE FOLLOWING TO READ.

You are required to read a second book this summer. Your chosen title will serve as the basis for an introductory literature assignment during the first quarter of 7th grade. You may choose from the following list. Parents are encouraged to preview any titles their kids may wish to read.
