ARMY JROTC STEM Academy

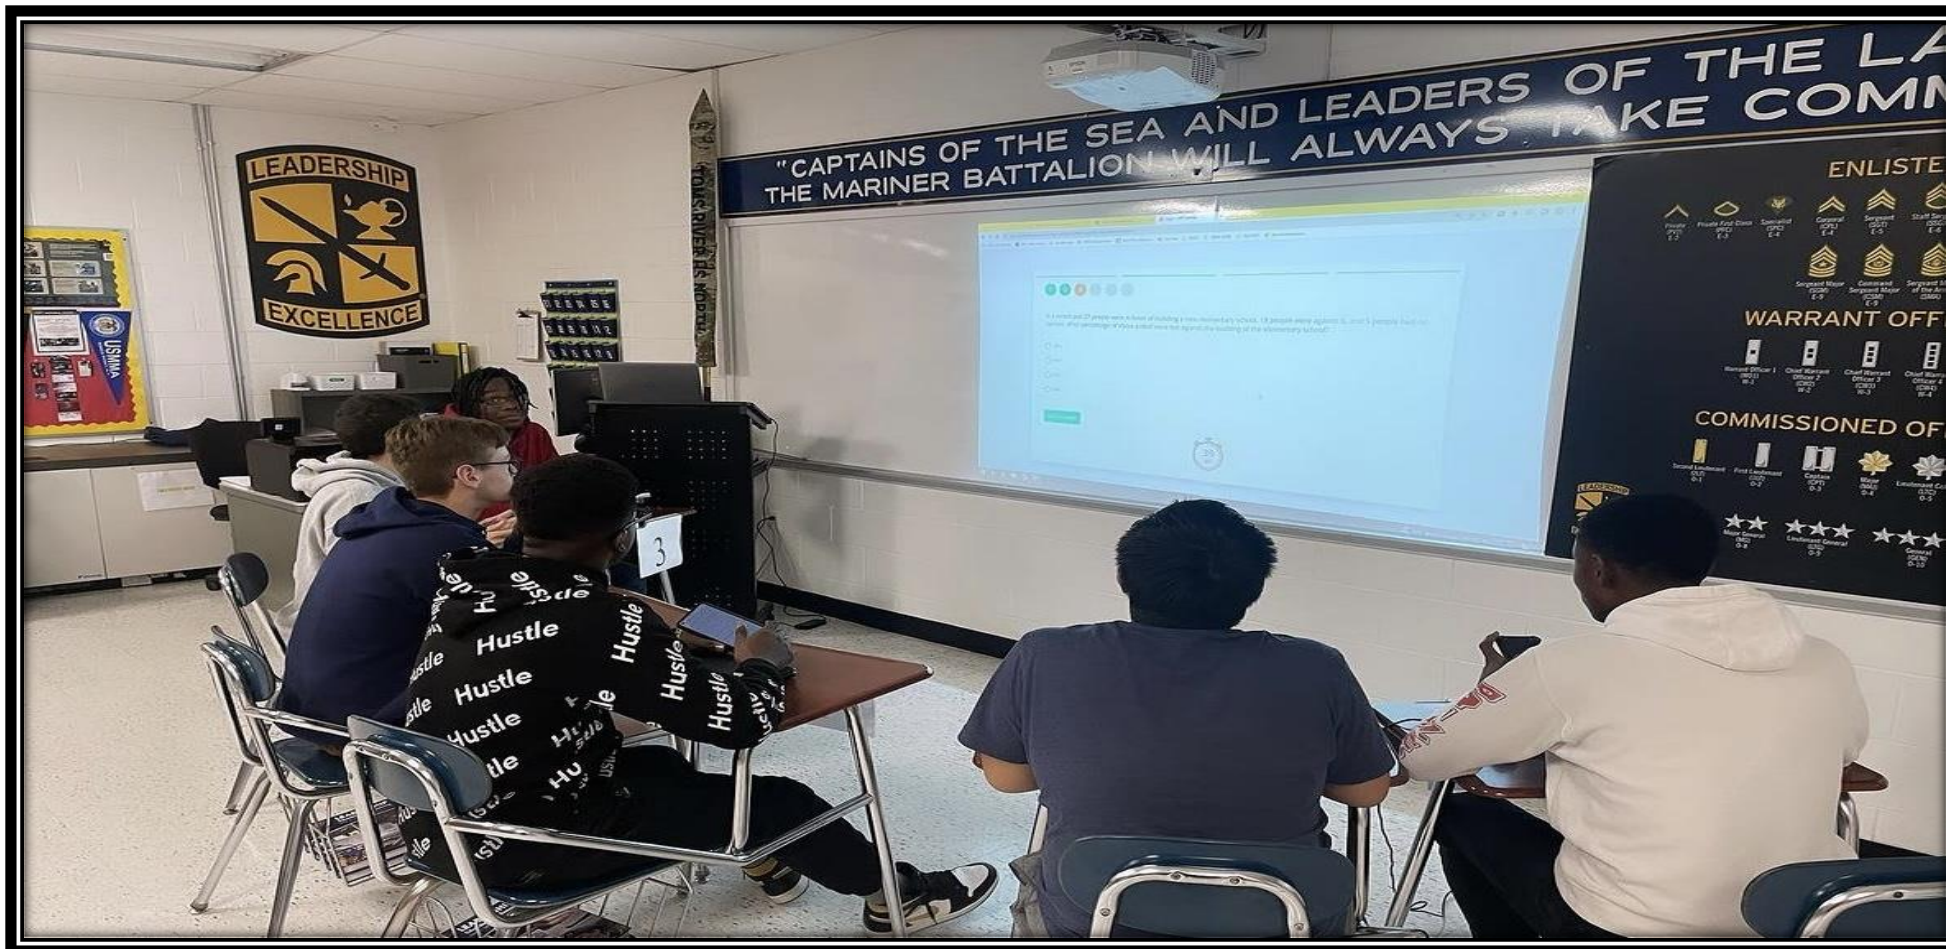

Mission Statement

Our mission is to develop disciplined, innovative leaders who are equipped with the technical expertise, strength of character, and resilience to excel in STEM fields and serve their communities with integrity and honor. Rooted in the core values and fundamentals of the Army JROTC program including leadership, citizenship, personal responsibility, service to the community, and a commitment to lifelong learning we foster academic excellence, moral character, teamwork, and civic engagement. Through rigorous training and mentorship, we empower Cadets to enter as learners and graduate as leaders prepared to meet the challenges of tomorrow as confident and productive citizens for life.

Additional Summer Camps: CyberPatriot and STEM

1. Penn State (The Pennsylvania State University) CyberPatriot Summer Camp

Date: June 9 – 13

The AJROTC CyberPatriot Summer Camp is part of the National Youth Cyber Education Program, established by the Air Force Association to inspire K-12 students to explore careers in cybersecurity and other critical STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) fields vital to the nation's future. Central to this program is the National Youth Cyber Defense Competition—the largest cyber defense competition in the country—where high school and middle school students learn to secure virtual networks. This camp equips cadets with fundamental cybersecurity skills, fostering interest in STEM-related career paths.

2. St. John's University (Queens, New York) STEM/Cyber Summer Camp

Date: June 26 – 30

The AJROTC STEM/Cyber Summer Camp at St. John's University offers cadets an immersive experience in both military and academic settings. The program provides instruction in:

- Drill and Ceremony
- Leadership Development
- Cyber Knowledge and Skills
- Signal and Communication Equipment
- Robotics Workshop
- Physical Fitness Training on a College Campus

Cadets will also have opportunities to use the university's recreational facilities while participating in engaging hands-on learning activities. This camp aims to prepare cadets for future careers in STEM while fostering discipline, teamwork, and leadership skills.

3. JCLC (JROTC Cadet Leadership Challenge) – Fort Dix, NJ Leadership Camp

Date: June 25 – 29

The AJROTC Cadet Leadership Challenge (JCLC) at Fort Dix, NJ, is designed to develop leadership, discipline, teamwork, and self-confidence in cadets through rigorous physical and mental challenges. This program emphasizes hands-on experiential learning and includes the following activities:

- Rappelling: Develops confidence and problem-solving skills by practicing descent techniques from various heights.
- Canoeing/Aquatics: Enhances water survival skills, including drown-proofing techniques.
- Map Reading/Land Navigation: Teaches cadets to navigate using maps and compasses, improving spatial awareness and critical thinking.
- Survival Course: Equips cadets with basic survival techniques, fostering adaptability and resourcefulness.
- Sports & Recreation: Promotes teamwork and sportsmanship through physical activities and competitions.
- Orienteering: Challenges cadets to navigate through courses using maps and compasses.
- Drill and Ceremonies: Reinforces discipline and precision through structured military drills.
- Marksmanship Training: Provides cadets with opportunities to practice air rifle marksmanship in a controlled setting.
- Rope Bridge Construction & Crossing: Enhances teamwork and problem-solving skills through engineering and navigation exercises.
- Award & Graduation Ceremony: Recognizes cadets' achievements and formally concludes the camp experience.

This program provides an intensive leadership development experience, preparing cadets for future responsibilities while instilling values of perseverance, cooperation, and confidence.

These AJROTC summer camps provide invaluable opportunities for cadets to gain hands-on experience in leadership, cybersecurity, and STEM while reinforcing discipline, teamwork, and resilience. Through immersive training and educational activities, cadets will develop essential skills that contribute to their personal and professional growth.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

All-Year

RUN FOR THE FALLEN
PRESENTED BY HONOR AND REMEMBER

We run dedicated miles to honor and remember each fallen hero who died since the GWOT began. However, regardless of war or conflict, branch of service or cause of death, we ultimately run for them all. We honor their service and sacrifice, and remember that they each gave up a future so that we could have ours. We give tribute to them by name wherever possible and to the sacrifice of the families they left behind.
