

Vocabulary 19 Review

Sentence	Definition	Word
The jury was obviously impressed by the prosecutor's irrefutable logic.	Cannot be disproved; unquestionable	Irrefutable/adj.
The jury must have discounted most of the defense attorney's points as irrelevant .	Not to the point; not relating to the subject; inapplicable	Irrelevant/adj.
The surfers used so much surfer jargon that no one outside the sport could understand what they were saying	The specialized vocabulary of members of a group	Jargon/n.
Because of his father's nasty temper, Greg thought it judicious to ask his mother about extending his curfew	wise; careful; showing sound judgment; prudent	Judicious/adj
The coach kindled their hopes of victory with his reusing speech	TO ignite; to arouse or inspire; to catch fire; to become aroused	Kindle/v.
The brain is a labyrinth with unfathomable secrets	A maze; a complicated, perplexing arrangement or course of affairs; intricacy	Labyrinth/n.
The coach's halftime pep talk jolted the team out of its lackluster attitude	Lacking in brightness; dull; lacking; liveliness; vitality, or enthusiasm; spiritless	Lackluster/adj.
The actor Clint Eastwood portrayed several laconic characters who preferred action to words.	Brief or terse in speech; using few words; concise	Laconic/adj.
Though the lampoon aimed some vicious ridicule at him, Fred tried to maintain his sense of dignity	Strong, satirical (comic put-down), usually attacking or ridiculing someone	Lampoon/n.
The long flight and the jet lag brought about a lassitude that lasted several days	State or feeling of being tired or listless; weariness; sluggishness	lassitude/n.