

Vocabulary 14 Practice Quiz

- | | |
|---|---------------|
| 1. outrageous; extremely offensive | a. Facilitate |
| 2. little known; newly developed | b. Fallacy |
| 3. occurring by chance | c. Fastidious |
| 4. mistaken belief; falsehood | d. Fervor |
| 5. great warmth of feeling; intense emotion | e. Fitful |
| 6. spasmodic; intermittent | f. Flagrant |
| 7. difficult to overcome | g. Fledgling |
| 8. deserted; unhappy; alone and neglected | h. Forlorn |
| 9. help bring about; to make easy | i. Formidable |
| 10. hard to please; dainty in preferences | j. Fortuitous |
-
11. Although the opposition was ----, everyone in the club felt that they could defeat them if they played without mistakes.
 12. The defense attorney attempted to find a ---- in the prosecutor's argument in order to sway the jury in favor of his client.
 13. I was surprised that such a sloppy assignment was submitted by the normally --- - student.
 14. The ---- with which the students cheered on the team at the pep rally made it clear that school spirit was running very high.
 15. The ---- rest I got last night was not enough to keep me mentally alert during the test.
 16. Although writing a research paper is difficult, the process has been ---- because the teachers have broken it down into small steps.
 17. The family was unwilling to shop at the -----internet store and instead bought all their products from more established companies.
 18. The ---- postponement of the test helped Fabio since he had forgotten to study for it.
 19. They decided to adopt the puppy after seeing its ---- expression through the window of the animal shelter.
 20. Despite his clean prior discipline record, the student was expelled for committing such a ----- offense on campus.

1F; 2G; 3J; 4B; 5D; 6E; 7I; 8H; 9A; 10C; 11I; 12B; 13C; 14D; 15E; 16A; 17G; 18J; 19H; 20F