

VOCABULARY 5 PRACTICE QUIZ

- | | |
|------------------------------|---------------|
| 1. Express disapproval of | a. Cajole |
| 2. complaining | b. Callous |
| 3. heavenly | c. Capitulate |
| 4. An emotional purification | d. Capricious |
| 5. fickle | e. Carping |
| 6. Agent of change | f. Catalyst |
| 7. surrender | g. Catharsis |
| 8. Biting; corrosive | h. Caustic |
| 9. unfeeling | i. Celestial |
| 10. Persuade with flattery | j. Censure |

11. The new employee seemed to be a true ----- who was able to get the company to change its policies and move in a new direction.
12. In a particularly ----- debate, both presidential candidates had their reputations damaged by the display of the nasty personal insults they hurled at one another.
13. When we saw the white flag, we realized they were prepared to -----.
14. You're going to have to stop being so ----- and make a choice of colleges before the deadline passes.
15. The teacher was asked to take some sensitivity training courses following his ----- remarks to his class.
16. Although the ending was tragic, we felt such a ---- at the end of the play that, looking back on it, the experience was enjoyable.
17. If you're so dissatisfied with the way the school is run, stop ---- about it and get involved with student government so that you make some changes.
18. The language the poet used evoked ---- images designed to make readers think of the heavens.
19. The league ---- the coach for his comments about the officiating, which they felt were entirely inappropriate.
20. She tried to ---- her teacher into excusing the late assignment, but Mrs. Jackson could not be persuaded.

1J; 2E; 3I; 4G; 5D; 6F; 7E; 8H; 9B; 10A; 11F; 12H; 13E; 14D; 15B; 16G; 17E; 18I; 19J; 20A