

EARLY LEARNING

Rising Third Grade
Summer Success Learning Extension Calendar

High Frequency Words
to Review this week:

again, buy, first, live,
once, quite, ten, warm,
always, & carry

Read a fairytale book. Draw and label a picture of the characters and the setting.	Create a list of synonyms and antonyms for the words hot, fast, big, and happy.	Write about an animal you love. Tell 3-5 facts and don't forget to illustrate your sentences and label your illustrations.	Show how to solve $439+125$ by drawing, writing a number sentence, making your own word problem, and using manipulatives.	High Frequency Words to Review this week: full, many, only, read, thank, wash, animal, center, give, & may
Read a book. Identify and tell the author's purpose (inform, entertain, persuade) using details from the book.	How many 2-, 3-, 4-, 5-letter words can you make using the letters m, a, p, t, e, r & s. Can you make a 6 or 7-letter word?	Write a new ending to a book you have read. Read it to a family member or friend. Explain why you made the changes.	Write the number 1,783 in expanded form. Which digit is in the tens place? hundreds place? What number is 100 more? 100 less?	High Frequency Words to Review this week: open, seven, these, which, another, circle, goes, mouse, other, & show
Read a nonfiction book. Identify the text features and tell about their jobs. (table of contents, index, caption, photographs, charts, etc)	How many different words can you make by adding prefixes, suffixes, or inflectional endings to the root word bad ?	Write a make-believe story about learning to fly! How did you learn? What did you do? Did you like it? Add details!	Create word problems using the numbers 42 and 98. How many problems did you create?	High Frequency Words to Review this week: think, white, because, different, gray, Mr., ought, sign, those, & who Read a poetry book. Write a poem about something that interests you.	Write/draw words that have the spellings aw, ow, ough, and oo. How many could you think of?	Write about a famous person or character. Tell at least 3 to 5 things about them and what makes them special to you.	Practice counting pennies, nickels, dimes, and quarters. How many different ways can you think of to make $.35?	High Frequency Words to Review this week: been, does, hold, much, own, something, today, work, better, & easy