DESTINATION IMAGINATION

GRADES 1-2

MS. OWENS

MEETING & PRACTICE TIMES

We meet on Thursdays from 3:40-4:45.

Location: Room 107

Destination Imagination (DI) equips 1st-2nd grade students in strengthening their teamwork and creative problem-solving skills in science, technology, engineering and mathematics, and fine arts. Teams are capped at 9 members.

Ms. Owens' own positive experience on a DI elementary team as a DISD student inspired her to start a team at Lipscomb!

DI motivates young people to look for the challenges in life and see them as opportunities for growth. It inspires students to solve problems, search for creative solutions, and work cooperatively with others.

Students MUST commit to participating in the DI competition on February 1, 2025 in order to apply.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Email Lora Owens at lorowens@dallasisd.org with your child's name and grade level to apply.
Tryouts will be held if interest exceeds availability of spots.

MODEL UN

GRADES 4TH - 5TH - LIMITED SPOTS

MS. OWENS

MEETING & PRACTICE TIMES

We meet on Monday mornings: 6:45-7:45am

Location: Meet out front by the main door.

OPEN MEETINGS for any interested 4th & 5th graders:
Monday, 9/16, 6:45am
Wednesday, 9/25, 6:45am

Rosters will be finalized on 9/26.

Does your child love learning about world events? Model United Nations could be the place for them!

Students join a team where they pretend to be delegates representing a country at a United Nations role-playing conference. They develop research, problem-solving, communication, and public speaking skills.

Students must be able to manage their own behavior and commit to participating in the global conference, which is held in Dallas on May 16th and 27th.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Email lorowens@dallasisd.org with your child's name & grade level to express interest.
