Women and African Americans

Mistreated because of their skin color and they're women. You may be wondering why they are? They are getting Mistreated because their skin color is different.

An awesome thing has happened! An Indian African American woman Kamala Harris is the vice president! This is awesome for many! She is a hero for tons of things! One of them is she is the Vice President. And still with all that work she is still helping tons of immigrants!!

All people should have the same rights even if they're African American or a woman.
