

WE-SIDE

By Ruby

"I can't breathe"

"I feel silenced"

"They thought I was a terrorist"

"I don't feel safe sharing who I am"

I have heard these words,

This is too absurd

We should stand as one

Or we won't be able to get it all done,

Your hateful words don't stop here,

They make me feel uncomfortable and want to disappear.

Embrace who you are,

Don't make others be left with a scar,

Respect is key,

We should all agree,

We are more the same than different, if you could only see

Don't let the hate cloud your mind, or let me be

That's why we should be treated equally,

Love who you are,

Stand up for what's right,

That's why we welcome those in need,

Be the right person that you want to be.
