Athletic Program Fee Notification: The athletic participation fee is a standard fee to participate in a sport and is not determined by specific services or items received by individual participants (e.g., playing time, gear issued, number of games played, etc.).

By registering for this sport, families acknowledge and accept responsibility for the full participation fee. Registration constitutes a commitment to the season and to the associated fee, regardless of circumstances that may affect individual participation.

Please note: Fees are non-refundable and cannot be waived following the conclusion of the season. Fees are automatically applied to the student account prior to the first competition. For questions contact athleticdepartment@montverde.org
