Frank Seale Middle School is on a mission to educate students to the highest levels of academic achievement while fostering their emotional needs to support them in becoming productive, respectful and responsible citizens.

Students at Frank Seale excel in a variety of academic and extra-curricular activities including athletics and fine arts.

Frank Seale families show a strong involvement with the campus, attending six family events and showing particular interest in the Bring your Dad to School Day held annually.

Frank Seale Middle School is the only middle school to send students to both high school campuses. It truly is where bonds are made that last a lifetime.

STRONG PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT. The campus held a Bring your Dad to School Day with 161 family members represented.

ALUMNI. Eight staff members attended Frank Seale/Midlothian Middle School.

THE ONLY SPLIT MIDDLE SCHOOL. FSMS students go on to attend both Heritage and Midlothian High Schools.

EXPERIENCED AND ACCOMPLISHED STAFF. The FSMS staff has a total of 614 years of combined experience.

MULTIPLE LANGUAGES. There are nine languages spoken on the campus including Akan, Mandarin, Swahili and Euromba.

WELCOMING NEW FAMILIES. FSMS serves all the new development in the northwest sector of the district.

ECONOMICALLY DISADVANTAGED students make up 52% of the enrollment.
