Hello ICS Families

We had a wonderful “Evening at the Pops” concert this week. Our MS and HS ensemble groups all performed more contemporary pieces connected to pop culture and entertainment. The concert ended with all five groups performing the Neverending Story. The band and orchestra spilled into the front rows of the Lyceum and our choir stretched the perimeter of the entire Lyceum even up into the bleachers. The audience was literally surrounded by music and kids. More importantly, the audience was engulfed by smiling faces. If you are a parent of a musician at ICS you have seen the immense growth of musicianship from our groups over this year. This growth mirrors what happens in all aspects of student life at ICS. We can see this growth in the classroom, arts, and clubs. Where students started the year is starkly different than where they are now. Hoping you notice the academic and personal growth over the course of the year too. We are grateful to be able to work with and serve your kids at ICS.

Have a wonderful weekend with your families!

Jacob
