Civility and Decorum – District officials and members of the public are expected to conduct themselves with civility and to afford each other a measure of dignity and respect. Shouting, personal insults, and attacks or any conduct that disrupts the flow of business is considered to be out of order. Members of the public are to direct their comments to the Board in its entirety, cannot single out Board Members for response, nor can a member of the public address specific issues with other members of the community who may be present at the meeting or who are virtually present if it is a virtual or hybrid meeting. In addition, members of the community shall not bring signs or placards to the meeting and shall not applaud or engage in any actions that would impede another community member's right to make comments at the meeting. At the discretion of the Board/Board President, individuals who are disruptive shall be subject to removal from the venue of the Board meeting, unless the disruptive individual agrees to maintain civility and decorum.

SPECIAL
REPORTS Superintendent's Report

- A. Review key points from recent feasibility study concerning capital improvements and a Common Campus model.
- B. Address common questions the school board and administration has received concerning capital improvements and a Common Campus model.
- C. Review results of recent surveys concerning a Common Campus model.

PUBLIC COMMENT

17 community members spoke. Speakers highlighted the high millage rate, the lack of transparency in survey distribution, and the financial burden on taxpayers, particularly elderly residents and disadvantaged families. They argued that the project would increase taxes significantly, potentially forcing residents to sell their homes. Concerns were also raised about the feasibility of the project, the lack of clear offsets in costs, and the potential long-term impact on the district's finances and community. The board was urged to focus on academic needs and fiscal responsibility.

ADJOURN-MENT

Mr. Fedorcha made a motion, which was seconded by Mrs. Kulp, that the regular meeting of the Northern Lehigh School District Board of School Directors adjourned.
