Committee: Student Programming
Date and Time: May 7, 2025 at 6 p.m.
Location: JEH Board Room B
In attendance: Cara Wellvang, Clare Donnovan Scane, Henry Wilkins, Jamie Wallace Butcher, Jessica Isaac, Jessica Lang, John Brownlee, Liz Berliant, Max Levasseur, Melissa Rosenzweig, Michelle Cooney, Terri Shepard, Adrian Rivera-Rodriguez, Charmekia McCoy, Jamilla Pitts

Meeting Agenda/Overview

- Purpose
    - Provide an overview of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Literary and Fine Arts magnet program
    - Review relevant data aligned to program
        - Impact
        - Demand
        - Facilities
    - Gather feedback from the Student Programming Subcommittee to inform next steps
- Agenda
    - Welcome
    - Confirm norms/charge sheet
    - Identify spokesperson for share out
    - Process review
    - Program Overview
    - Facilities & Operational Data
    - Follow up from the 4.23.25 meeting - ACC

Overview:
Principal Rebecca Calloway presented an overview of the Literary and Fine Arts Magnet Program at Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Literary and Fine Arts Magnet School. She included information about the history of the program and outlined the recent Magnet Certification the school was awarded.

Subcommittee members also received a follow-up from the previous meeting which reported results from the poster activity and alignment with the Amplifying Black Voices report.