

Innovate Collaborate Inspire

Mini Monarch Academy at the Harold Lewis Center

To help families navigate the upcoming transition, we have compiled a list of frequently asked questions about the Mini Monarch Academy at the Harold Lewis Center and what to expect for the upcoming 2025-2026 school year.

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ)

Will there be transportation?

- Yes, transportation will ONLY be provided for students who are on IEP's; unfortunately, no exceptions will be permitted at this time.

What will the tuition be for peer models?

- Tuition will be $175 per month per peer model.
- Tuition will be due no later than the first day of the month, September to May.
- Tuition can be paid online via the EZPay System or by check delivered to the school office.

What days will we be in session?

- We will follow the MEVSD school calendar, with a Tuesday through Friday schedule and no school on Monday.
- Please refer to the calendar here.

What will the start and end times be?

- AM Session: 8:30-11:25
- PM Session: 12:45-3:40

Will there be a "Plan B" schedule for two-hour delay days?

- Yes, on two-hour delay days, we will follow a modified "Plan B" schedule.
 - ◆ AM Session: 10:30-12:30
 - ◆ PM Session: 1:45-3:45

Who will the staff be?

- The staff will be a combination of current Marysville staff, previous Harold Lewis Staff and new staff (as needed).

Will snacks be provided?

- No, families will need to provide their own tree nut-free snacks. A snack list guide will be shared closer to the start of the school year.

Will there be an Open House/Meet the Teacher for families?

- Yes, details will be sent to families prior to the beginning of the school year.

MARYSVILLE

Innovate Collaborate Inspire

Will there be field trips?

→ No, for the upcoming school year there will not be field trips.

Will there be a supply list?

→ Yes, a supply list will be shared closer to the start of school.

We look forward to partnering with our families for a GREAT school year!

MARYSVILLE

Mini Monarch
Academy