2024 SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

The Rochester West Indian Festival Organization, Inc. was founded in 1984 to preserve cultural heritage among Caribbean people and their descendants and to share this culture with the Greater Rochester community. RWIFO, Inc. is dedicated to our youth's educational success and building a strong Caribbean Community, Culturally, Socially, and Financially. The Organization will share its success by offering scholarships to deserving minority graduating high school seniors of the Greater Rochester area.

Seven financial awards ranging from $1,000 to $1,500 will be awarded to graduating seniors to go towards their college education at an accredited college. Six $1,000 scholarships will be awarded based on academic merit.

One $1,500 scholarship, the Mary Thompson Community Service Award, will be awarded to a student who has performed outstanding community service in memory of Mary Thompson, founding member and first RWIFO president.
