

Teacher of the Deaf Weekly Resources

Week of: April 27

Flocabulary : Username: bremmer8787 Password: tree0345

3rd Grade - 6th Grade

	4/27 MONDAY	4/28 TUESDAY	4/29 WEDNESDAY	4/30 THURSDAY	5/1 FRIDAY
Self Advocacy	How do you take care of your hearing aids at home? Talk to someone in your family about this. How do they assist you in hearing aid care at home?	Terrific Tuesday! Write down or share with a family member 3 things that you are thankful for that make life terrific!	Imagine a new student joined your class. They noticed your hearing aids. They ask "What are those?" How would you answer their question, write 2 - 3 sentences.	Take a virtual field trip to the San Diego Zoo! Click this link to the live cams at the zoo. It is so cool to see what the animals are doing right now! Do you think animals can having a hearing loss like you? Why or why not?	Think about it...  When was the last time you changed your hearing aid batteries? Why did you change them? Did you do this task by yourself, or with help?
Literacy Writing	Using your full name, come up with a superhero, or movie character that starts with each letter. Make sure to label where the character is from! Example:  M: Minnie Mouse (Disney) A: Andy (Toy Story) T: TinkerBell (Disney) T: Tigger (Disney)	Using the word ABLE write three sentences about what these athletes are able to do.  	Go read for 20 minutes. What is one word that would describe the reading that you did? Why did you pick that word?	Math Problem!  Jason has half a dozen dimes. How much cents does he have?  Show your work!	Create a comic strip about you traveling somewhere warm! Include conversations and pictures within the comic strip. What would you pack? Where are you going? Who are you going with? Why are you all traveling?
Vocabulary	What does the word delicate mean in the following sentence?  Please be careful with the cup, it is glass and very delicate.  Check with someone at your house to see if you were right!	Make a list of 5 things that are delicate .	Create a story about something delicate from your list yesterday.	Make a list of 5 things that are not delicate .	Draw a picture of one object from each of your lists.