

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION – SCHOLAR ATHLETES

With 120 outposts and more than 12,000 members, the NFF Chapter Network covers more than 5,000 high schools and 500,000 student-athletes in 47 states, annually analyzing the credentials of the top student-athletes from their respective communities. Criteria for the award include but are not limited to academic achievement, athletic accomplishments and community leadership. The chapters subsequently recognize approximately 3,500 of the best scholar-athletes at their local awards banquets, distributing more than $1 million in scholarships.
