

LINCOLN-WOODSTOCK COOPERATIVE SCHOOL DISTRICT
SAU #68

CHILDFIND NOTICE

Under the IDEA-Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, it is the responsibility of Lincoln-Woodstock Cooperative School District (Administrative Unit #68) to seek and identify children who may have an educational disability. If you suspect that a child, from age 2 ½ to 22, in Lincoln or Woodstock has a disability, or if you have any questions, please contact Nancy Bartlett, Director of Pupil Services at (603) 745-2214 ext. 232 or email: nbartlett@lin-wood.org for information or to make a referral.

Lin-Wood High School seeks to contact students with educational disabilities who have left school prior to earning a diploma or becoming 22 years of age. The school would like to invite these students to return to school. Please contact Nancy Bartlett, Director of Pupil Services, at (603) 745-2214 ext. 232 or email: nbartlett@lin-wood.org for information about the programs and services that are available.
