Just a quick reminder that, if you have a concern, your child's teacher should always be the first point of contact, not social media or other families. If the concern is not satisfactorily resolved with the teacher, Mrs. Titus and I are always available to support. Let's model the behaviors we want to see from our children and conduct ourselves in a manner that demonstrates the character we value as a school community. 😊

Stay SAFE and be KIND!

Sincerely,
