Classroom & Library Book Purchases

- Purpose: To bolster representation of Native voices and narratives from within Michigan, the Great Lakes, and North America
- Selection Committee: Book list was compiled by project directors, cohort teachers, secondary ELA chair, district library chairs, and a consultant with expertise in Indigenous history and literature.
- Materials:
 - All preK-12 school libraries (150-250 new titles per level)
 - MS/HS Literature Circles (Secondary ELA)
 - Social studies reference materials

The 99d grant covers the full purchase of district books / resources.
Thank you to our district Finance Department for their work on this!
