This Contract shall automatically extend/rollover for an additional school year, up to five (5) years beyond the original three (3) year term, unless the Board of School Trustees votes in an open meeting to not extend/rollover said contract on or before January 1st of each year, subject to the terms and conditions in this contract as further set forth herein. It shall be the duty of the Superintendent and the Board to make a reasonable effort to acknowledge this provision and remind each party of the existence of the rollover provision reference herein by December 1st of each year.
