MINISTRY SKILLS

Through the study of theology at Briercrest, you will develop a clear understanding of biblical texts and theological concepts and their implications for ministry and life. A theology degree from Briercrest will equip you with the skills to live out your faith in any context.

CRITICAL THINKING

Theology is not simply an academic discipline; it is a way of thinking that can be applied to every area of life. The degree will give you the ability to think and write clearly about complex theological ideas.

INTERPERSONAL SKILLS

Through studying theology, students can gain an understanding of different belief systems and cultures and how they interact, which can be beneficial in establishing strong connections with others.

CAREER PATHWAYS

Students learn to analyze, synthesize, and apply theological ideas by exploring the history and development of Christian thought that will prepare them for workplace careers.

CAREERS IN TEACHING

Learning how to study God's word can be immensely beneficial in pursuing further education to become a teacher. Hone skills and methods for engaging in sound and thoughtful interpretation of the Bible to impart valuable lessons to students.

CAREERS IN MINISTRY

Strengthening your faith and better understanding God's word is key to pursuing a career in ministry. Knowing how to study the Bible confidently can help shape valuable insights and understanding. A deeper appreciation for Scripture can assist in knowing how to interpret God's word wisely and faithfully.

PROFESSIONAL CAREERS

A BA in Theology is a great choice for students planning to go on to seminary. Our graduates have also had excellent success gaining entrance (and scholarship funding) into PhD programs in Theology at nationally recognized universities.

WHAT OUR GRADUATES SAY

A Briercrest Theology degree opens doors to various careers and jobs. Hear alumni and students describe the workplace preparation they experienced in their Briercrest degrees.

"My professors provided a safe environment to allow my thoughts to be challenged and to consider the need for a proper biblical grounding for what we believe. My thinking has grown in amazing ways through my classes and interaction with professors."

NATHAN

Theology PhD Student

"The faculty and staff at Briercrest, along with my fellow students, were some of the most intellectually influential and spiritually formative people in my entire life. I am what I am due to those people I met, learned from, and lived with at Briercrest."

DAVID

EFC President and CEO

"What I appreciate most about the theology program is that it pushes you beyond your comfort zones. It forces you to look at Christianity from a perspective outside yourself, and appreciate the breadth of Christian beliefs."
