Dear WPS Families,

Happy May Fete! We're wishing all of our families a joyful and memorable May Fete tomorrow! This week has been full of celebration as we honored our fourth graders during continuation ceremonies and picnics at each school. It was wonderful to come together as a community to recognize this important milestone.

A heartfelt thank you to our fourth grade families for attending the ceremonies and for volunteering your time and energy to make the picnics so special. Your support means the world to our students and staff!

Take care,

Dr. Gina Kirchner

This week's Cowboy TV lessons focused on sportsmanship. Showing good sportsmanship means being kind, fair, and respectful to everyone, whether we win or lose. If someone makes a mistake, we should be encouraging by using kind words instead of laughing or getting upset. Practicing good sportsmanship also means being honest and following the rules because cheating or being unfair takes away the fun for everyone else. We want to be encouragers, not discouragers, and this means we need to use our words to make others feel confident, not sad or left out. Even if someone isn't the best at a game, they still deserve our support and kindness. Demonstrating good sportsmanship shows that we care about others and want everyone to have a good time. The following are titles of children's books that teach about sportsmanship: Howard B. Wigglebottom Learns About Sportsmanship (K-1st grades), I Want to Win! by Sue Graves (K-1), Winners Don't Whine and Whiners Don't Win by Julia Cooh, If Winning Isn't Everything, and Why Do I Hate to Lose by Bryan Smith (3rd-4th grades).
