

Lorenzo G. Loya Primary School

Parent and Family Engagement Policy School year 2025-2026

To participate in a child's education is a basic right and responsibility of every parent.

Lorenzo G. Loya Primary School holds to the ideal that to obtain a high level of student achievement it is essential to engage the entire family as educational partners. In doing so, we must create for each family a welcoming and safe learning environment. In accordance with our mission statement, Lorenzo G. Loya Primary School will support the development, implementation, and evaluation of parent involvement policies, programs and services at our school. Based on the National Standards for Parent/Family Involvement, a section of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA), the following are our definitions of the methods used to achieve a quality Parent and Family Engagement Program.

Home/School Communication

Communication between the school and home is used to promote parent engagement. It is important that all parents are well informed regarding their student's education progress, ways to support their child's learning, and important information about our school including ways to become involved. Following are the systems in place to facilitate such communication:
