About Pine Hill Elementary School

Pine Hill Elementary School (PHES) serves students in Kindergarten through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools.

- PHES fosters student success by creating a safe, inclusive environment that focuses on strong connections and problem-solving skills.
- The school promotes a sense of belonging by encouraging collaboration among students, staff, and families, ensuring that everyone feels supported.
- Equity is embraced through special education support and programs including All-Pro Dad and Belonging, which meet diverse emotional and educational needs.
- PHES provides a range of academic and social-emotional support through differentiated instruction, targeted interventions, and personalized learning plans.
- Social-emotional programs focus on building resilience, fostering relationships, and developing coping strategies to ensure students thrive both academically and emotionally.
