For Board:     Action                       Discussion                       Information

Background –

Governing Board President, Ylenia Aguilar, is requesting conference fees to the National School Public Relations Association (NSPRA) 2021 National Seminar. At this conference, President Aguilar is an invited presenter about the power of bilingual/multilingual communications with parents and the community. Besides her expertise as a translator, President Aguilar was often a sounding board, editor, and collaborator for the superintendent in his public communications over the past year throughout the pandemic. She has also advocated and arranged for public speaking or press opportunities for the superintendent with local English and Spanish media (TV as well as social media or virtual conference panels). She will share this experience tied with her professional leveraging for multilingual access for communities.

President Aguilar is requesting approval of costs associated with conference fees. She has already sought grant funding for travel and accommodations.
