Assignment Due Dates, Late Grades, and Remediation (K-12)

Policy AP 7.4 - Assignment Due Dates, Late Grades, and Remediation (K-12)

All assignment due dates are at the discretion of the classroom teacher. Unless otherwise noted by the classroom teacher, all assignments are required to be turned in on the date due at the beginning of the meeting time of the assigning class. When a student does not turn an assignment in on time, it will be the student's responsibility to communicate with the instructor in order to create a plan for turning the assignment in as soon as possible.

For the K-12, assignments turned in after the due date will be assessed a 10% penalty for every school day the assignment is late up to a maximum of 50%, beginning immediately after the assignment deadline has passed. For example, an assignment turned in 3 school days after the due date will incur a 30% penalty, meaning the assignment will only be worth 70% of the grade earned. Late assignments must be turned in by the second to last Thursday of the quarter.

For the K-12, one remediation will be allowed on all Summative Assessments (e.g., end of unit, end of semester, etc). Teachers will ensure that end of quarter/semester assessments will be planned in such a way as to allow time for remediation on such assessments. The purpose of remediation is to encourage students to correct misunderstandings. Therefore, students may earn 50% back on the points they have missed on a summative assessment after being given a chance to remediate. Summative assessment remediations must be completed within the same quarter that the assessment was originally given. Formative assessment remediations (e.g., regular homework, recursive writing assignments, quizzes, etc) will only be allowed at the discretion of the individual classroom teacher. Remediations will not be allowed to make-up points lost due to turning an assignment in late but may be used to increase scores within the points allowed after factoring in the late penalties.

All grades will be posted/reported within no more than 7 calendar days (late work within 10 calendar days of receipt) from the time a teacher received the assignment, or by the end of the term, whichever is less. Gradebooks will be closed on the last scheduled Friday of the quarter unless waived by the Head of School.
