IV. Superintendent Report

A) Updates

Dr. Maria Rianna thanked the entire Board of Education for the bouquet of flowers as well as the entire Glen Cove community for giving their support, confidence and trust to build in moving the district forward. She stated that she has been so fortunate to work with an amazing group of teachers, teacher assistants, custodians, administrators, central office administrators, parents and board of education members. None of what she has accomplished during her time in Glen Cove would have been possible with everyone's support. As the new superintendent takes over Dr. Rianna stated that she knows the district will move in the right direction as she knows how committed everyone is and she looks forward to hearing fantastic things.

1. Recognition

Dr. Maria Rianna acknowledged our First in Math regional winners by presenting the following three Deasy school students (James Baxter, Diego Hernandez Lopez and Anthony Sirica).

Deasy School Principal, Ms. Erin Nastri, spoke of how these students performed during the competition and how proud she is of each of them. She presented them with certificates of recognition for their outstanding performance in securing first place for the third consecutive year. She congratulated these second grade students.

A photo of the group was taken.

Dr. Maria Rianna continued by recognizing our first place BASH (Broadcast Alliance Senior High) recipients for Best Human Interest Story, Mr. Jake Lebowitz and Ms. Sarah Ayiku who were presented with certificates and had a photo taken with their teacher Mr. Chris Barry.

Dr. Rianna went on to acknowledge both Ms. Sarah Ayiku and Ms. Makaylaa Chestnut who received third place BASH (Broadcast Alliance Senior High) for Best Sports Feature. The district recognized both these ladies with certificates of recognition and a photo was taken with their teacher Mr. Chris Barry.

Our final recognition of the evening went to Ms. Natalia Janeczko who was awarded Student of the Year Regents

Award. She was recognized with a certificate and a $500 scholarship from LIASEA. A photo was taken alongside Dr. Rianna.

The Superintendent of Schools, went on to the thank all our award recipients for the opportunities they've taken outside of the classroom. Dr. Rianna acknowledged that it takes hard work and a greater commitment in showing their talents. She thanked all of them in representing Glen Cove for all they do as students and future community members.

2. Energy Performance Presentation

Dr. Rianna stated that they had investigated options in bringing the district renovations that would save monies and still improve the educational environments of the school district. The completion of Phase I of the APC project has been completed and she introduced Ahmed Ibrahim from Ecosystem who went over the renovations that have taken place thus far through a PowerPoint presentation. Mr. Ibrahim introduced Michelle Watson, the project manager who has overseen all the projects thus far. All questions were addressed.

3. Math Presentation

Math Coordinator, Anthony Allison, presented to the Board of Education via PowerPoint and he went over a snapshot of the elementary math curriculum as well as displayed graphs showing the growth that has taken place. Handouts of the presentation were available to all in attendance and questions were addressed as presented.

V. Student Board Member Report

Student Board Member, Isabel Basil reported one last time on the happenings at the high school where she stated that the last couple of weeks have been a celebratory time as they end the school year. She mentioned that last Thursday several high school students went to Deasy to help out with their field day making it a fun and rewarding experience.

They have been honoring the achievements of the students at the high school through a series of ceremonies. Both under classman and upper classman were recognized for their academic and extra-curricular accomplishments with some including: sports awards, senior music awards and honor society inductions.

Last Friday was the last day of final instruction and seniors celebrated with a BBQ organized with the help of the custodians, administration, parents and teachers. The afternoon was relaxing with seniors spending time handing out, playing games and walking around getting there year books signed. It was a great way to be together one last time before graduation marking the end of their high school journey.

Prom is next Wednesday and graduation is on Friday the 27th.

As this is the final board meeting of the year Isabel thanked the Board of Education in giving her this opportunity to serve as the student representative. She went on to say that it has been an honor to share the school's accomplishments with them and is grateful for the experience and the flowers that were presented to her.

Ms. Basil congratulated Dr. Doeschner in her future as the Superintendent of Schools wishing her the best of luck. Isabel went on in extending her thanks to Dr. Rianna for all the things she has done through the years. She mentioned how she had a conversation of with Dr. Rianna and the Vice-President Elias Benitez on how she started 12 years ago around the same time we entered kindergarten and now we are all leaving together. It feels like we are all graduation at the same time and once again thanked Dr. Rianna in making her experience in Glen Cove really great.

Trustee Lynn James took a moment as her term is drawing to a close to say how much she's loved serving. Serving her kids, the community in an official capacity and that it has lifted her heart in giving back to Glen Cove. From when she first arrived in Glen Cove schools she was affectionally welcomed by past PTA moms. Due to clerical and administrative reasons time did not allow her to correct what was needed to run again. Ms. James stated that she would have loved to have run again. She thanked everyone and acknowledged how much this experience has meant to her and although she won't be occupying her seat, she will still be here.
