P.E.R.A. RETIREES

The State of Colorado recently enacted Senate Bill 05-73. This change in law counts work under any arrangement by a PERA retiree for any PERA employer toward the 110-day per calendar year limit.

Starting July 1st, 2005 the District is required to report to PERA any payment information on individuals or owners of firms who receive PERA benefits. This applies only to individuals or firms whereby the District receives services in any form. If you are currently receiving PERA benefits, any payments made to you may affect the 110 calendar year limit provisions set forth by PERA.

It is important that you return this document.
