

Board Briefs

Hickman Mills C-1 School District
BOARD OF EDUCATION

For the Tuesday, April 16, 2024 Board Meeting

The Hickman Mills C-1 School District is proud to announce the inauguration of its new board members and the selection of its new board president, marking a significant moment in the district's leadership.

Bonnaye Mims and Alvin Brooks are now official members of the Hickman Mills C-1 School Board after being sworn in during a Tuesday, April 16 ceremony. Mims, appointed to a three-year term, brings a wealth of experience and dedication to the board, having served in various capacities within the education and public service sectors. With a background in the Missouri Department of Mental Health Forensic Services and extensive involvement in local governance, Mims will make a meaningful contribution to the district's continued success.

Alvin Brooks, appointed to a one-year term, adds valuable expertise and a solid commitment to improving education for all students. As a retired educator from the Kansas City Public Schools, former president of the Kansas City Board of Police Commissioners, and chair of the board of Hope Academy, Brooks' multifaceted experience uniquely positions him to advocate for the holistic needs of Hickman Mills students.

In addition to swearing in new board members, the Hickman Mills C-1 School Board elected Irene Kendrick as board president and Anne Coleman as board vice president. Kendrick and Coleman served as co-presidents during the past year. The inauguration and election ceremony marks a new chapter in the Hickman Mills C-1 School District's journey toward a future of innovation, equity, and excellence in education.