

Regulation 6163.4 Student Use of Technology

Status: ADOPTED

Original Adopted Date: 06/1995

Last Revised Date: 06/2012

The principal or designee shall oversee the maintenance of each school's technological resources and may establish guidelines and limits on their use. He/she shall ensure that all students using these resources receive training in their proper and appropriate use.

On-line Services: User Obligations and Responsibilities

Students are authorized to use the district equipment to access the internet or other on-line services in accordance with Board policy, the user obligations and responsibilities specified below, and the district's Acceptable Use Agreement.

1. The student in whose name an on-line services account is issued is responsible for its proper use at all times. Students shall keep personal account numbers, passwords, home addresses and telephone numbers private. They shall only use the account to which they have been assigned.
2. Students shall use the district's system safely, responsibly and primarily for educational purposes.
3. Students shall not access, post, submit, publish, or display harmful or inappropriate matter that is threatening, obscene, disruptive, or sexually explicit, or that could be construed as harassment or disparagement of others for reasons including but not limited to the following basis': their race/ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender, sexual orientation, age, disability, religion, or political beliefs.

Harmful matter includes matter, taken as a whole, which to the average person, applying contemporary statewide standards, appeals to the prurient interest and is matter which depicts or describes in a patently offensive way sexual conduct and which lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value for minors. (Penal Code 313)

4. Unless otherwise instructed by school personnel, students shall not disclose, use, or disseminate personal identification information about themselves or others when using email, chat rooms, or other forms of direct electronic communication. Students are also cautioned not to disclose such information by other means to individuals contacted through the Internet without the permission of their parents/guardians.

5. Personal information includes the student's name, address, telephone number, Social Security number, or other individually identifiable information.
6. Students shall not use the system to encourage the use of drugs, alcohol or tobacco, nor shall they promote unethical practices or any activity prohibited by law or Board policy or administrative regulations.
7. Students shall not use the system to engage in commercial or other for-profit activities.
8. Students shall not use the system to threaten, intimidate, harass, or ridicule other students or staff.
9. Copyrighted material shall be posted online only in accordance with applicable copyright laws. Any materials utilized for research projects should be given proper credit as with any other printed source of information.
10. Students shall not intentionally upload, download, or create computer viruses and/or maliciously attempt to harm or destroy district equipment or materials or manipulate the data of any other user, including so-called "hacking."
11. Students shall not attempt to interfere with other users' ability to send or receive email, nor shall they attempt to read, delete, copy, modify, or use another individual's identity.
12. Students shall report any security problem or misuse of the service to the teacher or principal.

The district reserves the right to monitor the system for improper use. The principal or designee may cancel a student's user privileges whenever the student is found to have violated Board policy, administrative regulation, or the district's Acceptable Use Agreement. Inappropriate use also may result in disciplinary action, and/or legal action in accordance with law and Board policy.
