About Bailey Elementary School

Bailey Elementary School (BES) serves students in Preschool through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. In 2017, the school was one of 342 nationwide to become a U.S. Department of Education National Blue Ribbon School.

- BES fosters an inclusive and supportive environment where all students feel valued, celebrated and empowered to thrive.
- BES emphasizes the Bobcat Way—Safe, Kind, and Grow—promoting meaningful relationships rooted in trust, care and mutual respect.
- BES integrates innovative teaching methods, including arts and STEM initiatives, to encourage creativity, critical thinking, and collaboration.
- Robust support systems, such as targeted interventions, special education services, and the English Learner (EL) program, ensure personalized learning for every student.
- Engaging programs like STEM Night, Battle of the Books, and Student Choir provide students opportunities to explore interests and develop essential future-ready skills.
