

Summary of all 8 Levels (Beginner through Advanced)

Beginner

- Purpose of this level is to have fun, enjoy, and experience different mediums. This is not in-depth art where they would learn advanced techniques. The Beginner level is mainly for enjoyment and fun with a broad overview of different mediums.
- If you are looking for more instruction or to advance your skills, it is suggested that you take the intermediate or advanced level.
- Tailored for younger students up to 2nd grade.
- Time of class:
  - 3:10-4:20 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 3:10.)
  - 4:30-5:30 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 4:25.)

Intermediate 1

- NOTE: You must take this level in order to advance to other levels
- This is a teaching course where general information or a variety of different types of art will be taught. It is an intro to art. For fun while beginning to learn about art. It is open to all grade levels.
- Instruction on the following mediums:
  - Monochromatic and polychromatic drawing
  - Tempera, watercolor, acrylic, and oil painting
  - Craft
  - Mixed media
  - Clay and sculpture
  - Woodworking
- The suggested students for this level are students who want to learn how to do a variety of types of art for fun.
- Time of class:
  - 3:20-4:20 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 3:10.)
  - 4:30-5:30 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 4:25.)

Intermediate 2

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I for admission into this class.
- In-depth study of the following mediums:
  - Monochromatic and polychromatic drawing
  - Tempera, watercolor, acrylic, and oil painting
  - Craft
  - Mixed media
  - Clay and sculpture
  - Woodworking
- The suggested students for this level are students who want to take art to the next level. The student will begin to learn technique and art skills. A more in-depth study of various mediums.
- Within each medium there will be a project produced over a length of time. These projects may be considered for IACS state competition.
- Time of class:
  - 3:10-4:20 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 3:10.)
  - 4:30-5:30 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 4:25.)

Intermediate 3

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I and II for admission into this class.
  - Students will be learning art techniques skills and begging to explore differ art types,
  - The suggested students for this level are students who want an in-depth study of various mediums.
  - Within each medium there will be a project produced over a length of time. These projects may be considered for IACS state competition.
  - Time of class:
    - 3:10-4:20 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 3:10.)
    - 4:30-5:30 p.m. (Students need to arrive by 4:25.)
- Intermediate I and II students must be in 1st grade or older unless approved by Mrs. Bliss. **Intermediate III students with prior art education or experience may show art to Mrs. Bliss for approval into higher levels.*

Beginner Advanced***

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I, II and III or must have Mrs. Bliss' permission for entrance into this level.
- Advanced level admission must be reviewed by prior class or former education evaluation. Students must show their artwork or skills in order to be considered for this class.
- For the advanced level you may choose group, private, or semi-private lessons (small class up to ten students).
- This level concentrates on specific artistic mediums. The student may choose up to 3 mediums they want to be instructed in.
- The class will be tailored for each individual medium.
- Tailored for elementary art students
- Time: see second paragraph on first page regarding time of classes.

Advanced 1

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I, II, III, and/or Beginner Advanced Level or must have Mrs. Bliss' permission for entrance into this level.
- Advanced level admission must be reviewed by prior class or former education evaluation. Students must show their artwork or skills in order to be considered for this class.
- For the advanced level you may choose group, private, or semi-private lessons (small class up to ten students).
- This level concentrates on specific artistic mediums driving into more advance study and technique. The student may choose up to 3 mediums they want to be instructed in.
- The class will be tailored for each individual medium.
- Time: see second paragraph on first page regarding time of classes.

Advanced 2

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I, II, III, and Beginner Advanced Level, Advanced I or must have Mrs. Bliss' permission for entrance into this level.
- For the advanced level, you may choose group, private, or semi-private lessons (small class up to ten students).
- This level concentrates on specific artistic mediums in more in-depth study. The student may choose to concentrate on one (or up to three) medium(s).
- Time: see second paragraph on first page regarding time of classes.

Advanced 3

- NOTE: Student must have completed Intermediate Level I, II, III, Beginner Advanced Level, and I or Advanced I and Advanced II or must have Mrs. Bliss' permission for entrance into this level.
- This level focuses on the mediums the student wishes to study in depth. of art.
- For the advanced level, you may choose group, private, or semi-private lessons (small class up to ten students).
- This level concentrates on specific artistic mediums. The student may choose to concentrate on one medium.
- Time: see second paragraph on first page regarding time of classes.

**Note: Students with prior art education or experience may show art to Mrs. Bliss for approval into Advanced Level courses.*