LUSD STUDENT BOARD REPORT – March 8, 2016

COLLEGE & CAREER

On Tuesday, March 15th, students who sign up in the college and career center will be attending a field trip to CSU San Marcos. They will receive a campus and housing tour.

AVID students will be visiting colleges on Friday, March 18th. One group of students will be visiting USC and Mount Saint Mary's; with the second group visiting CSU Northridge and CSU Channel Islands. Both routes will later meet up to celebrate the annual AVID Night at Six Flags Magic Mountain.

On Tuesday, March 22nd, advisors from the college and career center will be conducting a field trip to Pepperdine University. Students will receive a campus tour and will be given a presentation.

EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

Starting today through Friday, March 11th, JSA has organized a campaign to register eligible students to vote for the upcoming presidential election. This is a great way to get our students involved in politics and let their voice be heard.

Seniors are getting ready for their first event of 2016 which is Oscar Nite on Friday, March 11th. This will be Firebaugh's 8th annual Senior Favorite Awards show where students receive "Oscars" for receiving the most votes. Some of the categories include: most likely to change the world, social king and queen, worst case of senioritis, and many more.

On Friday, March 11th during periods 3 and 4, Link Crew will be holding a recognition assembly for the freshman class to recognize their academic and extra-curricular success. Also, Link Crew will be hosting a Freshmen Olympics event during lunch next week on Monday, March 14th, and Tuesday, March 15th. It's intended to increase freshmen school spirit by playing sports during lunch with seniors.

Pi day will be celebrated after school on Wednesday, March 16th in Falcon Square. Tables will be set up with clubs selling food and hosting a math game.

The Young Actors Guild is performing a musical play called "Cyrano De Burger Shack". It will take place in our Lecture Hall on Friday, March 18th at 6pm, Monday, March 21st at 4pm, and Wednesday, March 23rd at 4pm. Hope to see you there.

SPORTS

On Sunday, February 28th, Cheer and Drill participated in the West Coast Cheer & Drill Championships. Cheer won 2nd place elite and drill won 1st place senior drill. Congratulations to all the participants – they are on their way to compete at nationals.

Spring sports have started with the next home games as follows: Boys Volleyball played today vs. Artesia, Softball also played today vs. Bell Gardens, and Baseball plays on Monday, March 14th vs. Western.

Regarding: Lynwood High School Student Report to the Board

Good evening board President Ms. Renteria, Board Members, Superintendent Mr. Gothold, District cabinet members, and Lynwood community. I am Paola Estrada, Lynwood High School's Student Board Representative. This is Lynwood High School's student board report for Tuesday, March 8th:

PARENT MEETINGS - On Thursday, March 10th, there will be a 10th grade guidance meeting in the library at 5pm. Seniors will also be having guidance meeting in the library at 5pm on March 17th.

MOCK ELECTIONS - Our AP Government classes held a mock election today. AP government students were in charge of creating propaganda for each presidential candidate. They also passed out ballots and stickers to simulate a real life election. Students then went down to the library during their history classes to cast their vote for the next US president.

FIELD TRIPS - On Tuesday, March 8th, our environmental class will be taking a hiking trip through the Eaton Canyon Nature Center. Also on Tuesday, March 8th, Mr. Powell's class will be visiting LA Trade Tech College.

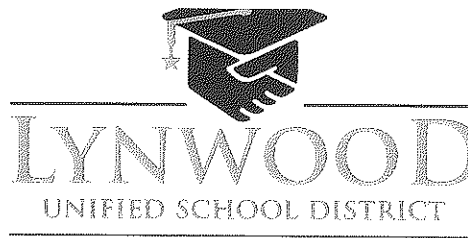

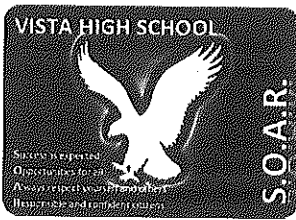

ACTIVITIES - Link Crew will be having Minute to Win It games during lunch this whole week. ASB will be hosting our first Mario Party Class Competition. It will be begin on March 14th with Mustache Monday and will be followed by Bro Tuesday, Bomb Wednesday, and Final Throw Down Thursday. During lunch, we will have classes compete in different games with the winning class receiving the school spirit stick on the final day.

STATE PLAYOFFS - Congratulations to our Boys Basketball team for being invited to State Playoffs after finishing second in CIF. The boys will begin their journey to a state ring with their first playoff match this Wednesday, March 9th against Bernstein High at 7pm at the LHS gym. The second playoff game will be on Saturday, March 12th at home.

SPRING SPORTS - Our spring sports season has officially begun. We wish the best of luck to all our athletes this season.

- Softball: Softball started their season off on the right foot with a win against Firebaugh High School on Wednesday, March 2nd. Their next game is this Thursday.
- Baseball: Baseball will be playing Dorsey on Saturday, March 17th at 11am

Ladies and gentlemen, this concludes the Lynwood High School Student Board Report.
