

CITIZEN'S OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE MEASURE K

Annual Report
Tuesday, March 11, 2014

YOUR MEASURE K DOLLARS AT WORK

- ◉ In November 2012, the voters of the Lynwood Unified School District approved a $93 million Measure K facilities bond for the District to renovate, repair and update our neighborhood schools.
- ◉ Measure K bond proceeds can solely be used to improve existing facilities or for new school building construction.
- ◉ Lynwood Unified is dedicated to ensuring that this vital funding that the community invested into our local schools is spent responsibly and that all projects are completed efficiently and at top quality.
- ◉ Lynwood Unified completed many improvements at 16 schools in the summer of 2013 and is continuing to make progress.

CITIZENS OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE

- ◉ Members of the Citizens Oversight Committee are community members appointed by the Lynwood Unified Board of Education.
- ◉ Their mission is to:
 - inform the public concerning the District's expenditure of Measure K bond proceeds,
 - review expenditure reports to ensure that proceeds were only expended for purposes set forth in Measure K and
 - present to the board an annual written report outlining their activities and conclusions regarding the expenditure of Measure K bond proceeds.
