

Parent Bulletin Friday 27th June 2025

Dear Parents and Carers

As always it has been a busy week. Exams have come to an end today for Year 12 students and they have taken them very seriously. We had a fantastic Performing Arts Showcase on Tuesday, a great new Year 12 Taster Day today and a visit from the son of Sir Nicholas Winton to talk to students in Winton House about his father's legacy.

Next week is really busy for us. We have our annual careers week running across the week but also:

Monday	Sports Day
Tuesday	Year 6 Induction Day
Wednesday	Domestic Abuse Awareness Assemblies
Thursday	Careers Fair and Year 10 Parents' Evening

Sports Day

Students in Years 7-10 should come to school in PE kit and with sun cream, sunglasses, a hat and water as it is going to be hot! We will walk to TVAC, have a great day of events and walk back again. Year 12s have a study day. Please make sure your child is prepared.

Year 10 Parents' Evening

This is on Thursday from 4pm and it is vital we see all parents to talk about their child's progress as they prepare for Year 11. Please make sure you have booked your appointments and contact Reception if you have any questions.
