Student Debriefing after Behavioral Emergency

This form is for staff use only; it does not go in a student's file and does not need to be sent to the SELPA. The Student Debriefing meeting should happen no later than 24-72 hours after the reported incident.

- Conduct a brief (3–5 minute) debriefing session with the student to review the debriefing form the student filled out in the De-escalation Phase.
- Conduct a concise debriefing session with the class.
- Reinforce the student's positive behavior.
- Gradually reintegrate the student into normal classroom routines.
