INFORMATIONAL ITEMS

M. Subaita: Thank you for the opportunity to be on this Board. I am happy to be graduating.

M. Jasen: I received the Harvest House Newsletter. I hope it reaches our needy friends. First food pantry – Kailee McDonald is involved. I also attended the MM PTA meeting. Some members are moving to the MS so they have new people coming on board. They raised $35k this year. Mike and I went to a SARD achievement dinner where 3 students were recognized. Great speech from an attorney. Went to the volunteer reception. There are so many hours that these people contributed to kids. Our Sped department is so special – thank you for your hard work.

S. Johnson: I went to the volunteer reception. There were so many folks involved. I also went to a WR PTO meeting. They were recertified for Leader in Me. WR leadership day was a success. It was a privilege to hand out scholarships, including to Frankie Bellanti. I also went to the Building Use Committee meeting.

B. Laible: Many year-end events. Retirement recognition, BOE election. I got a lot of feedback from community members. It's a long day but I got to see nearly 1,000 people vote. A lot of schools give individual awards out like the WR Schroeder Award. It's nice to see. There might be other awards we can do as a board to recognize students.

D. Anthon: I went to the final GL PTA meeting. Mancine will be president again. I also attended the retirement and tenure ceremonies. Think for 30 seconds about what the admins said about the teachers. How lucky are we to have talent with our students. It's nice to be in a place where we recognize teachers. This is the last meeting before graduation. Congrats to them.

P. Bellanti: I attended the Challenge to Change event. Attended the retirement and tenure receptions. I handed out senior awards. I'm looking forward to a busy week with graduation, town hall and moving up days.

A. Battaglia: I attended the Building Use Committee.
