Purpose of Collection Development Policy

This collection development policy is a statement of the principles and guidelines used by the Santaluces Media Center in its selection, acquisition, evaluation, and maintenance of materials. It will be used both in providing consistency among those responsible for developing the collection and in communicating the media center's policies to faculty, students, staff, and other interested members of our school community. It is understood that as the programs and information needs of the school change, so too, the collection development policy will change to meet these needs. Members of our library committee serve as department and instructional leaders that serve as English, Technology, Reading, Science, and elective teachers. Input is also gathered from students, parents, and staff members.

Background Statement & School Community

The students of the Santaluces Community High School range from nine through twelve grade and pre-school students. Our reported population is 49% Black and 39% Hispanic, with 12% White, and others of Asian, Mixed Race, or American Indian descent. We have 488 students currently in our English Language Learners program. Our population represents culturally diverse ethnic and economic backgrounds. Santaluces students live in the surrounding community or are Palm Beach County residents attending one of our academy programs. Our academies include Culinary Arts, Cybersecurity, Criminal Justice, Digital Design, Early Childhood, JROTC, Medical, Music Industry and Web Design.

We are a certified AVID school since 2010 and continue to expand our course offerings to serve our diverse population of 2427 students. Our course offerings include AICE and AP along with our academy and certification classes.

The Media Center also serves the faculty, staff, preschool students, and other Palm Beach County School District students through the Inter-Library Loan system.

School Mission Statement

Santaluces Community High School is committed to provide a world-class education with excellence and equity to empower each student to reach his or her highest potential and foster post -secondary success through rigorous instruction, extracurricular opportunities, and responsible citizenship.

Media Center Mission Statement

The Santaluces High School Media Center promotes reading growth and literacy for all students by providing a comprehensive collection of print and non-print resources.

The SHS Media Center supports the mission of the school through the continuous review of materials offered to staff and students. This review contributes to the updating of materials to ensure that the most current reading and research material, and technology tools for database research and information retrieval are available. The Library Media Specialist and staff encourages students to become self-directed in their learning and researching skills to keep pace with the continuing evolution of research and technology. Our Media center aims to stimulate intellectual curiosity and creativity in order to meet the varying needs of all learners to ensure post-secondary success.

Responsibility for Collection Management & Development

This collection development policy is a statement of the principles and guidelines used by the Santaluces Media Center in its selection, acquisition, evaluation, and maintenance of materials. It will be used both in providing consistency among those responsible for developing the collection and in communicating the media center's policies to faculty, students, staff and other interested members of our school community. It is understood that as the programs and information needs of the school change, so too, the collection development policy will change to meet these needs. Members of our library committee serve as department and instructional leaders that serve as English, Technology, Reading, Science, and elective teachers. Input is also gathered from students, parents, and staff members.

Library Program

Our Media Center has an open door policy before after school as well as during the lunch periods. During the academic school day, students may visit with a pass from their teacher or counselor to check out materias, conduct research, complete assignments, receive tutoring, or take tests and exams.

Our library program serves all staff members. We have a collection of early childhood books for our "Little Chiefs," preschool students. The librarian media specialist participates in activities throughout the year, such as the Halloween parade, Find the Elf, and other in class activities/lessons along with our Early Childhood Academy students. At the beginning of the school year and after the distribution of ID's, we provide a media center orientation for our freshmen students. Throughout the school year and during the summer programs, our media specialist provides lessons on research, technology, test taking strategies, lifelong reading skills, college and career exploration. Our creative station (makerspace) features arts and crafts, games, critical thinking challenges, building crafts, coding and technology activities along with others aimed at individual or team pursuits. Our media center also serves the instructional staff for professional development opportunities. The media specialist provides professional learning on topics and strategies for the following: AVID, Literacy, Classroom Management, Stress Relief Techniques, and Time Management.

Goals and Objectives

Goal #1 Update the average age of collection and weed our book collection by at least 20% in the areas of easy fiction, non fiction, and equipment by December, 2025. This will begin Summer of 2025.

- Run reports for age and # of circulations to assist with pulling titles for weeding
- Focus on one genre per month, beginning with the fiction collection

Goal #2 Increase our digital collection/ebook titles by at least 20%

- Send teacher and student surveys to gather a needs assessment used to purchase titles
- Purchase award-winning fiction and non fiction titles and biographies as measured by the needs assessment

Budget and Funding

We receive state and district funding to help support our school library. In addition, we apply for grants each year to supplement our collection in order to include the most popular titles in our collection. Our Media Center has an online research database collection provided by our school district to accommodate our staff and students.

Scope of the Collection

Our book collection includes fiction, non-fiction, and biography and covers topics to benefit our struggling and advanced readers, our Academy, Choice, AVID, AP and AICE students. Our print collection is arranged in standard Dewey order. We are building our digital library (audio and ebooks) to provide access to more materials 24 hours a day. We are also purchasing more foreign language and bilingual titles to accommodate our non native speakers. Our most extensive section is our fiction which includes classic literature, graphic novels, historical fiction and award-winning titles. We have done extensive weeding in our nonfiction collection this year to eliminate our aged and damaged publications. As per School Board Policy, 8.12, our collection supports both academic curriculum and independent reading.

We Promote the digital collections offered by our online databases and programs, such as Gale, SIRS, Mackin, and Follett for nonfiction topics which are changing frequently, as online tutoring sources offered by our district for assistance 24 hours a day from certified professionals.

Equipment

Technology & Equipment: Macbooks, iPads, Chromebooks, Laptops, Laminator, Poster Maker, Cricut, Ellison Machine, 3d Printer.

Collection Development

Providing a variety of reliable high interest quality materials that contribute emotional growth and academic growth is the purpose of the collection development. Our Media Specialist guides our process with assistance from our committee and stakeholders as referenced on the purpose statement.

District-Wide "Procedures for Selecting and Developing Library Collections"

School Board Policy 8.12 sets out the procedures for selecting and developing library collections. These procedures are followed District-wide.

District Resources And Services

The School District Library Media Services provides support to school library media center personnel and establishes uniform policies and procedures for school library media centers throughout the District. These services include, but are not limited to:

- Maintaining a professional library collection to assist with recertification and knowledge acquisition on education-related topics.
- Managing the online catalog including the library inventory and circulation software;
- Selecting and making accessible online information databases for reference and research;
- Providing guidance and training to school library media staff in program planning, curriculum development, budget, technology, collection maintenance, facility use and media production;
- Participating in inter-departmental curriculum development, facility planning, personnel staffing, and task forces at the administrative level;
- Managing technical services for acquiring and processing resources for schools;
- Distributing to schools and monitoring categorical and capital budgets allocated for library programs, and
- Fostering a global range of services that facilitate the transformation of school-based library activities to meet the changing needs of an information society.

The School District Library Media Services works in collaboration with other District departments including the Department of Educational Technology to provide selected electronic information, the technology to access it, and the training needed to search and find specific facts efficiently and effectively.

Gifts and Donations

Gifted and donated items must comply with our collection development plan as well as the criteria stated in School Board policy 8.12 referenced in Appendix D We only accept current and in great condition materials.

Collection Maintenance

Our inventory is done each year and on a 3 year rotational basis as noted below. Our Media Center Renovation was still occurring in the fall of 2024. We Received our bookshelves later this fall and inventoried all genres of books by March of 2025.

Lost or Damaged Library Materials

We follow School Board Policy 2.21B(9) which states: "If a student loses or damages District property, including library books and textbooks loaned to said student, said student shall be required to pay for, replace or repair said district property." Exceptions to this are extenuating circumstances, such as if a student does not have the means to pay for the materials. In those cases, we work out a plan to accommodate the student's and our library center's needs.

Strategic Focus - Weeding and Acquisitions

2025- Equipment, Nonfiction, Easy Fiction

2026-Fiction, Biography

Primarily we pull worn, and dated materials. We also view and follow School Board policies to ensure fidelity. Weeded and discarded materials are boxed, labeled, and picked up by our district once a year.
