Position Summary

Mater Dei Elementary School is seeking a dedicated and dynamic Middle School Science Teacher to join our 50/50 English-Spanish Dual Language Immersion Program. The teacher will be responsible for designing and delivering a standards-based science curriculum that fosters inquiry, creativity, and a love for learning. This individual will serve in an instructional capacity while promoting bilingualism, academic excellence, and STREAM integration.

In addition to their instructional duties, the teacher will actively support the school's mission, participate in school events and meetings, and carry out responsibilities as assigned by the Principal.

Essential Duties & Responsibilities

- Design and deliver a rigorous, standards-aligned science curriculum with real-world applications and project-based learning.
- Create lesson plans that reflect diverse learning styles and incorporate effective grading practices.
- Integrate STREAM disciplines into classroom instruction to enrich learning experiences.
- Support the implementation of schoolwide STREAM initiatives and events.
- Stay informed on current trends in STREAM education and apply best practices in the classroom.
- Promote inclusive, accessible, and culturally responsive instruction for all learners.
- Use a variety of instructional strategies including differentiation, hands-on learning, and technology integration.
