NORTH HIGH

EASTLAKE OHIO

here, in these halls we come each day to walk.
a colored floodgate opens, spilling in and through the rooms.
some smile,
some do not.
upstairs,
down again,
the halls
swell and tremble,
echo and groan,
laugh and cry,
with us.

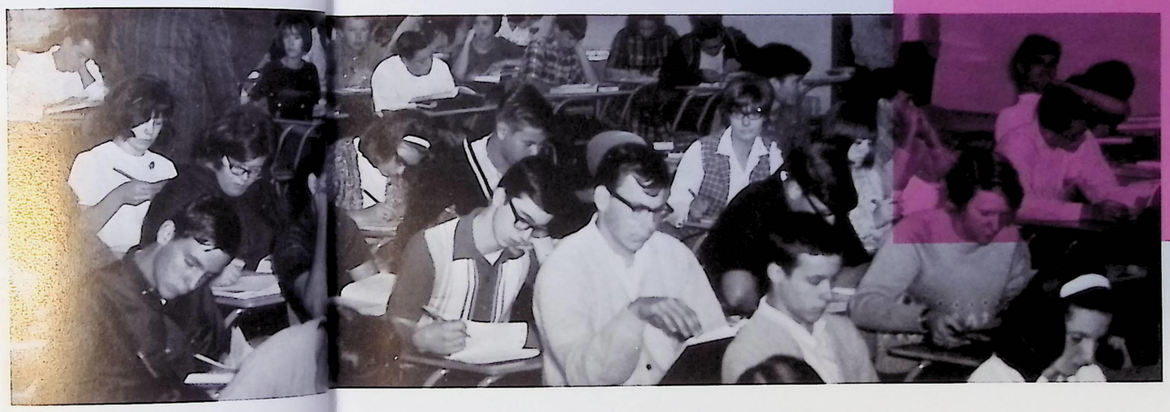

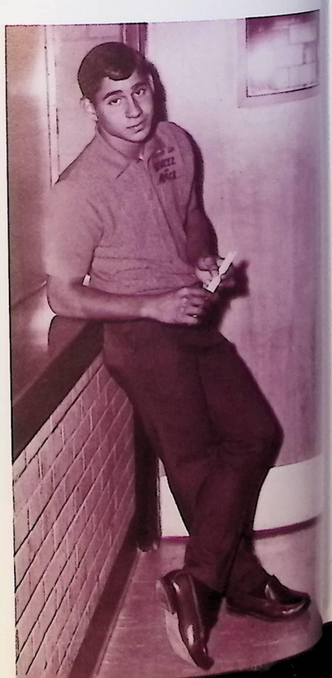

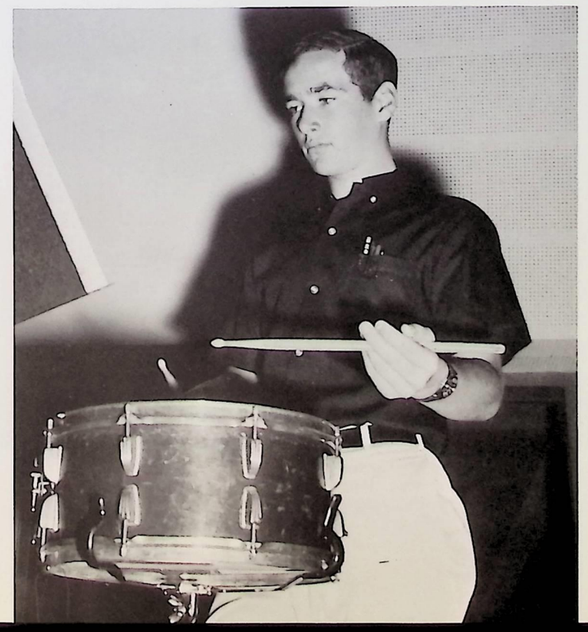

the school itself, painted with the vibrant oils of our changing moods, changes daily with us but stays somehow the same.

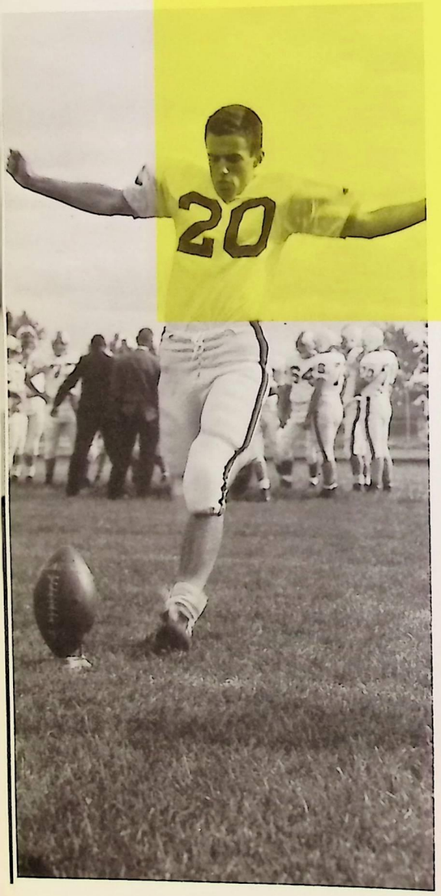

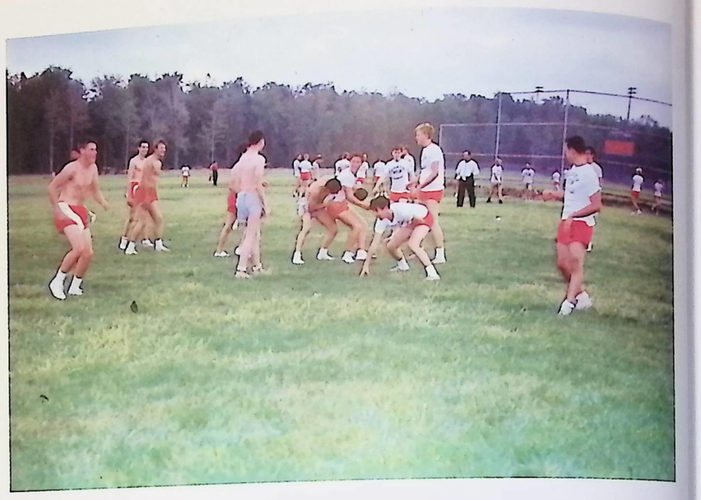

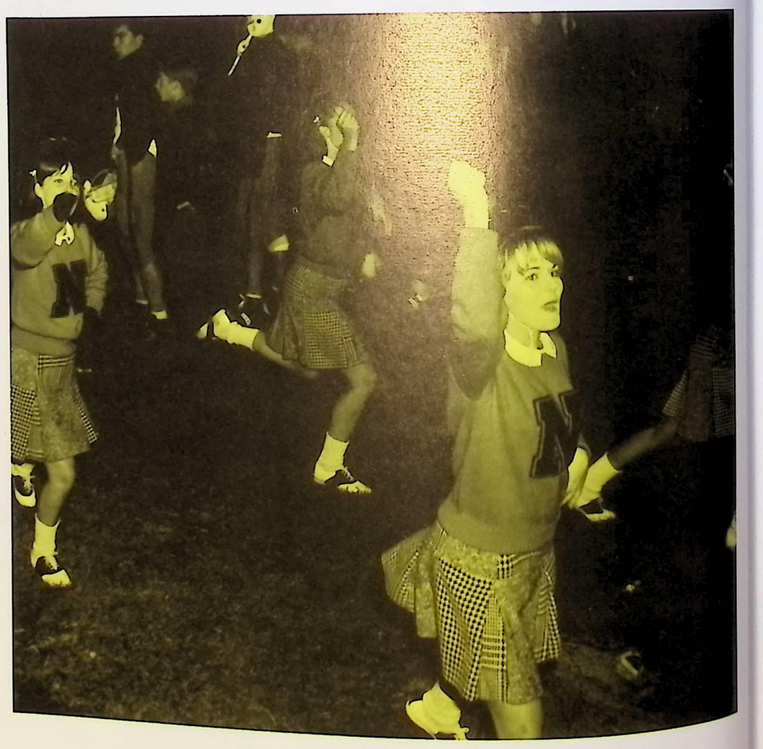

inside outside,
outside in, we who have watched the years ripen are now harvesting the wheat of our knowledge, we have practised enough, we are ready.

homework, books, pens, lockers, studyhalls, cleats, shoulder pads, tardy, absent, passes, a place to go to do things and secretly we need it.

we have pictures before us, moments given eternity, frozen seconds, smiles above time; and we have made it what it is.

this paper monument, these specks of years,
this printed key to warm smiles and tears will stay with us, giving our hopes memories, our tomorrows a past.

Chubby and moving, incredulous and dynamic—Mr. Beck.
"My life is my art or my art is my life," he quotes, his philosophy. Advocate of the unusual, the imaginative, the stirring, the creative—Mr. Beck. One who looks where everyone else looks and sees what no one else sees. One who believes that if you seek to be more like someone else then who shall be like you—Mr. Beck—

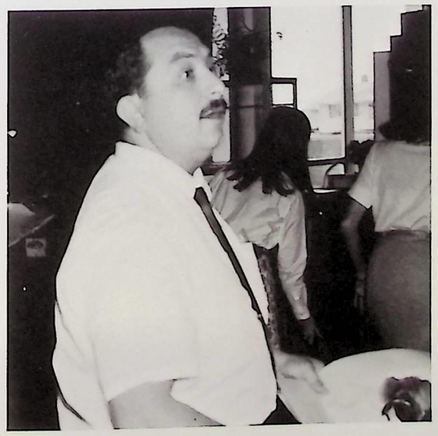

You who have caused creativity,
You who have pushed us to the depths of imagination,
You who have painted art indelibly in our hearts,

To you, Mr. Beck, we, the graduating seniors of 1967 dedicate this yearbook and in so doing choose you to be one of our most cherished memories.
Ours was the privilege of knowing you.

Now we kneel on June grass,
The green carpet of our youth,
Smiling as our knees grow damp.

And the blades stand upright again,
Wet from the honey of the earth,
Where we've walked four years before.

Arms upright with crunchy handfuls, laughing for Delicious freedom.

We stop,
Remembering how we came
To open fields.

School is part
And with it all the peppermist
Days of dreaming,
Tears,
Books,
Broken pencils,
Halls,
Lipstick,
Proms,
And pep assemblies,
Yes, we're gone.

So, empty in the night Silent bells will Call our memories to order,
And alone the desktops will Study their graven scratches.

And of us that have left
To better lives
There are those who take Their precious years and Put them on the shelf relieved,
Thanking no one,
Laughing at their teachers
Who have made them all they are,
At peace until unrest
Sweeps them back beneath the dust
To glaring memories,
And lost promises.

The Class of 1967. With the graduation of this class, ten classes will list North High School as their alma mater. But what made the Sovereign Class of 1967 something special? Many things did. Though they may have gone unnoticed by those not members of the Sovereign Class of 1967, the 600 members of the class will always be drawn together by them.

It was three years ago that our class entered as sophomores. At that time we really couldn't be called a class, for two distinct groups still were present. But as the class officers were elected—Eric Uhler as President, Ron Evens as Vice-President, June Hodanovac as Secretary, and Kathy Dobnikar and Deidre Hoye as Co-Treasurers—and the enthusiasm of the activities of North caught on to us, we soon forgot what junior high school we came from and remembered that we were now Rangers.

Who can ever forget those first hectic weeks at North? Finally we could find the science wing without asking directions, but what about the many activities to choose from? We soon found that our time must be budgeted and that some clubs must remain out of reach.

No discussion of activities in our sophomore year would be complete without mentioning the Junior Varsity teams that year. These three teams, the football, basketball, and wrestling Junior Varsity teams, as well as the sophomores who participated in other sports, represented our class. And no class could have been prouder!

Perhaps the last activity that the class participated in as sophomores was the election of the class officers for our junior year. Those elected were John Vargo, President; Ron Evens, Vice-President; Lorie Manley, Secretary; and Rhonda Law, Treasurer.

No longer were we stuck with the dreaded name of sophomore. We could stand up with pride as juniors.

As juniors, we began a year that was packed with activities. The council, selected early in the year, was kept busy from September until June. One of the first jobs the class tackled was the homecoming float. Those who worked on it will long remember the many harried hours spent in our secretary's garage working on "What Float?" The effort was rewarded, however, when Queen Kathy O'Hara took her place on the float.

The Sovereign Class's junior year was marked by a sometimes hot rivalry between them and the Scintillating Seniors. We would not be put down, however, and we stood up for our rights. One of the most marked battles appeared over the selection of our class name. After quite a bit of discussion and a few mistakes, the class chose Sovereign as our name. The name was well chosen and as the name implies, we worked to assume the power and authority we would need as seniors.

One of the most effective and easiest ways to raise money is the class fun night. During the junior year, our class held two of these. The first will always remain as one of the most vivid memories of the year. This fun night was an all school activity and the junior-senior rivalry came alive in a tug-of-war—much to the chagrin of a gym door. This night will also be remembered by a certain President of the Seniors who just happened to walk into a post.

The second fun night was open only to juniors—but the night vibrated with volleyball, basketball, and dancing.

In order to raise funds, the class also participated in a bottle drive and an after-game dance.

The class buttons were designed and sold in our junior year. The buttons featured an orange '67 on a black background. They soon appeared at games, matches, and other events as the juniors showed their support of the class.

The day we received our class rings was a day to remember. All juniors could be recognized by the look in their eyes as they examined their own rings and the rings of their friends.

In May 1966, the juniors put on their first play, "Time Out for Ginger". The cast, though small, did a wonderful job as they found themselves for the first time on the other side of the lights.

On the night of the Junior Dance, the cafeteria was transformed into a setting appropriate to the theme "Tahitian Tempest." Hardly recognizable as a part of North High, it seemed instead to have been plucked up from the South Seas and put down there. The juniors who attended the dance and their guests will long remember this night. Jackie Peterson and the Paramounts provided the music.

One of the first activities during the senior year was Homecoming 1966. Representing our class was the Homecoming Queen Linda Prahin and her court. The court consisted of Jeanne Culp, Wendy Gelin, Sherry Szafraniec, Pat Henry, Linda Krause, and Grace Wills. The dance was memorable and the game was exciting even though we lost to Garfield. And for the first time as students at North we witnessed a homecoming game that was free of rain.

As football season progressed, the seniors were prouder and prouder of the team. Their fine near win against Warren Harding convinced us that they were tops. The last game of the season was the traditional rivalry against South. This game marked off one more step closer to the end of the year. Not many seniors who attended that game could sing the alma mater without some emotion. Whether team members or spectators, this marked the last time we could attend a high school football game as seniors.

Football season was also added to by the cheerleaders and the marching band. A special thanks from the seniors goes to senior cheerleaders Grace Wills and Darlene Querciolli, the drum majors Ron Brann and Steve Ellis, and the senior majorettes Beth Edwards, Sherry McDonald, Martha Sperry, and Anita Fiori.

The day the senior pictures came was another red-letter day in the year of the Sovereign Seniors. The pictures had been taken late in the summer. The wait to see the final product seemed endless to many of us. When they finally came, such comments as "Gee, I'm sorry, but I have to order more", "That's a beautiful picture", and "It doesn't look like me", rang through the halls. Teachers found it an impossibility to teach any senior during these days and there were even threats from some of the faculty about confiscating them.

Busy seniors found themselves busier as the Senior Class Play "Rally Round the Flag Boys" took shape. Not only did the actors have their lines to learn, but many other seniors worked on the production, make-up, or business staff. Both nights the cast played to a capacity crowd. But the actual performance is not all the members of the cast will remember, for the real work and fun took place in the numerous and trying rehearsals. Here is where the real friendships were developed and where many fond memories were made.

One big worry that all seniors face is the question of their future. Whether to go to college, or on to some training, whether to get a job, or whether to join the military service are big decisions. Then there are those seniors, especially girls, who are planning to get married. Those applying to colleges wait anxiously for the results of their tests and ultimately that letter of acceptance. Along with this comes the privilege of adding your name to the ever-growing list of college-bound seniors in the guidance office.

After Christmas vacation the year flew by as the end grew near. Teachers became more demanding and the lists of projects, tests, and themes grew longer and more involved. The semester passed and took with it half of the school year. Wrestling season and basketball season ended and the track, baseball, and golf teams started practicing. Seniors found themselves wondering where the year had gone as the prom and graduation approached.

Months before May 20, preparations for the prom had started. Actually, preparations had started three years ago when the class first started earning funds for the treasury. Almost everything the class participated in was directed toward the big activity of our high school years—the senior prom.

The night of the prom was indescribable, the school was beautifully decorated, and the mood was dreamy. The theme, "Moonlight Mist", had been chosen early in our senior year, and it provided an appropriate theme for a wonderful setting.

Afterwards, the class went to the Crystal Room of the Pick Carter Hotel in Cleveland. Here our after-prom was held. The band, the dinner, and the friendships provided an opportunity for talking, and dancing. As the night drew to an end, the seniors went home to change and possibly catch a few hours of sleep before piling into cars to go on the many picnics that were planned.

Monday morning, seniors could be identified by their lack of homework and heavy eyelids. But not one would have missed it for the world.

Announcements were ordered and gown measurements were taken as graduation neared. Feelings were mixed that night as the class gathered together for the last time. Elation, sadness, relief, and confusion were all present. The packed Cleveland Arena watched as each of us walked up to the front to receive our diplomas. What a feeling it was to finally have that piece of paper in our possession. And as the alma mater was sung by us for the last time as a class, tears flowed from the eyes of many. Our class would soon be separated with all of us pursuing different walks of life. But although the individual contacts will be severed, we can always cling to the intangible things North High School has given us—memories, learning, and friendships.

Through our years of schooling many persons have given of themselves so that we could progress. Not a few of these are at North. To all, but especially to Mrs. Tanski and Mrs. Karhan, our counselors, we would like to say thanks for everything and goodbye.

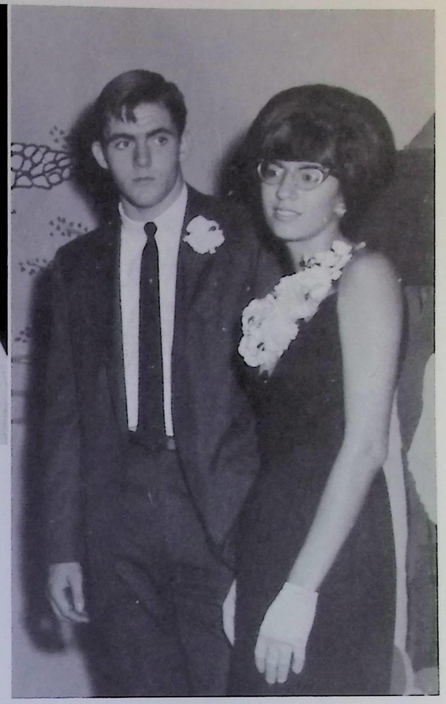

To our own dear alma mater
This our song we raise.
Extends from hearts that love her
And will echo now her praise.
Oh may we strive to do her honor
And live by her rule.
So come and join us while we cheer
For dear old North High School.

GRACE WILLS

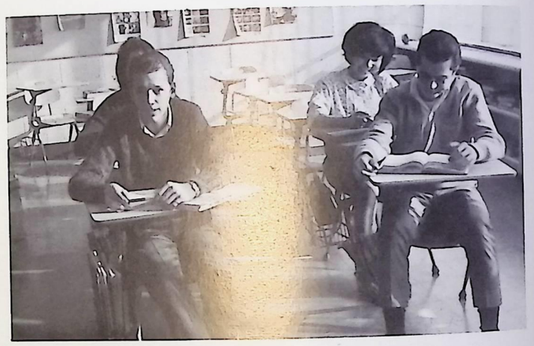

American Field Service

North High has been honored by having Trinh with us this past year. Though quiet, Trinh has added much to many people during her stay in the United States. As a representative of the American Field Service she has done her part to acquaint herself and us with each other. It will be with sadness that we say good-bye to Trinh in June.

Rangers Place 2nd in G.C.C.
Highlight of Season-Clash With Warren

The Ranger footballers compiled a 7—2—1 mark and finished 2nd in the G.C.C. The outstanding point of Coach McIntyre's team was the explosive offense which could strike from anywhere on the field. Bob Terrell, who is viewed as the flashiest runner ever to wear a Ranger uniform, set a new school scoring record of 126 points. The Rangers set a single game scoring record with 60 points against Bedford. The defense was not overwhelming but limited their opponents to 82 points and posted three shutouts. All scholastic linebacker, Bill Murton, was considered one of the finest linebackers in the state and led the team in tackles for the second straight season.

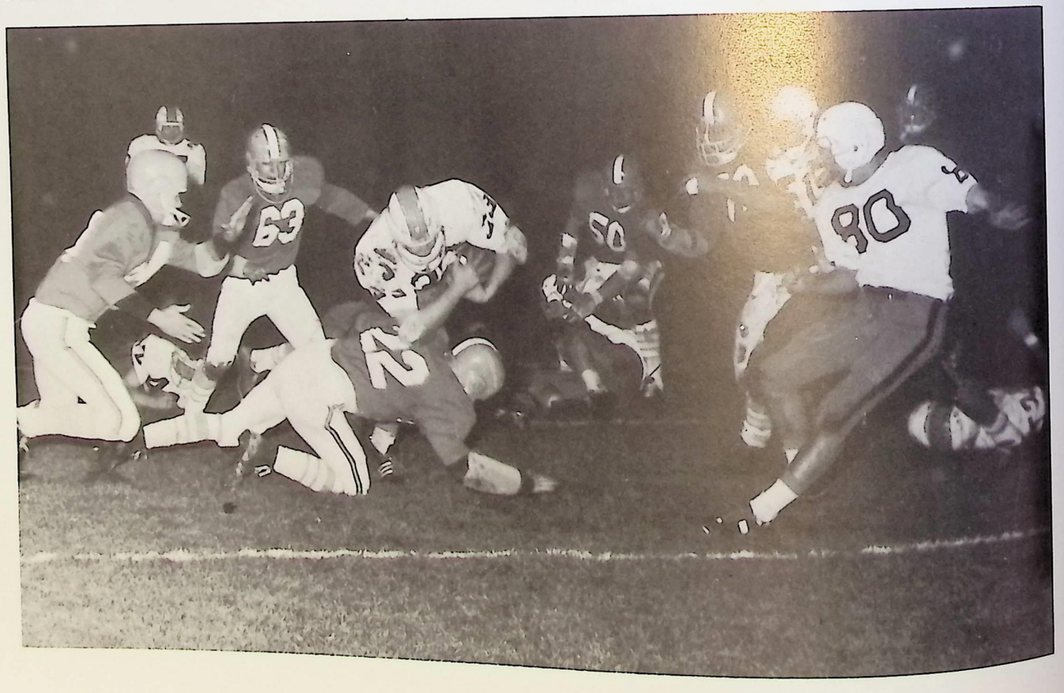

The team finished tenth in city wide ratings losing heartbreakers to Garfield and state power to Warren Harding. They posted big victories over Maple, Bedford, Berea, and South.

Gaining all-conference laurels for North were: Bob Terrell, Bill Kettunen, Bill Murton, Bruce Yee, John McGlew, and Dale Stakich.

Varsity Basketball

Rangers Post 13—6 Record

The Ranger's Basketball team under the coaching of Mr. Tom Crowe posted a regular season record of 13—6, best in the last four years of the school. They won nine straight at the beginning of the season, then ran into a streak of bad luck. The five losses were by a total of fifteen points. They ended 18th ranked in the city and were looking forward to the tourneys. Shaw knocked the team out in the first game in a 57—54 overtime thriller.

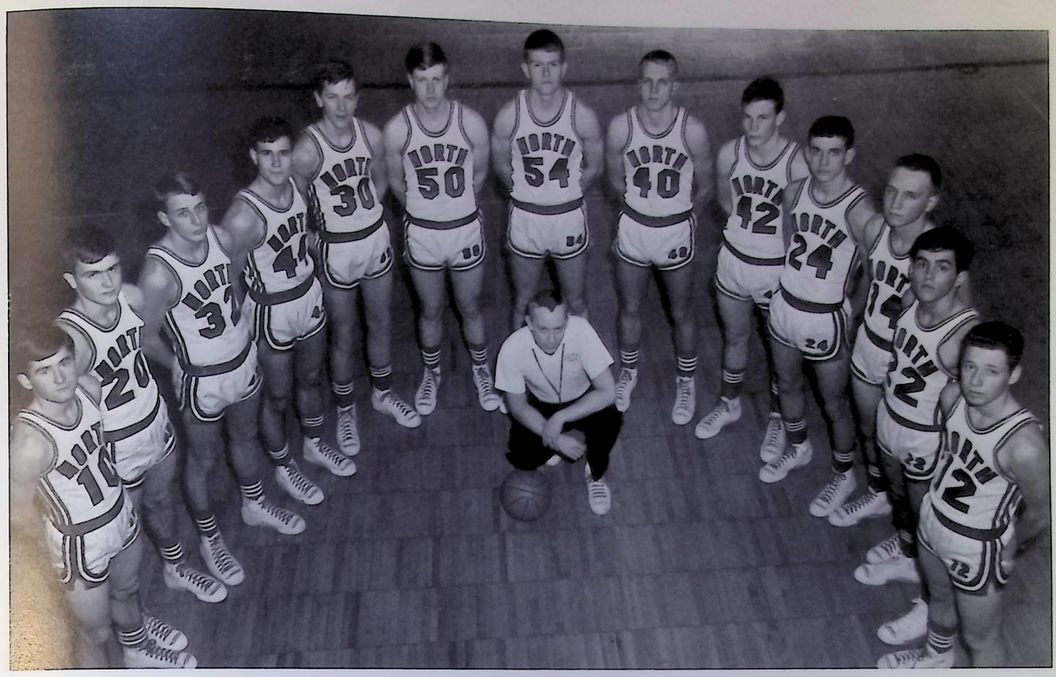

The Rangers displayed a fast break offense averaging 65 points a game. They also utilized a full court press which turned many a close game into a victory. Bill Kettunen and Ken Kastelic were named to the all G.C.C. team. Larry Koeth and Bill Kettunen received News Herald Player of the Week honors.

		Runner-up in G.C.C.

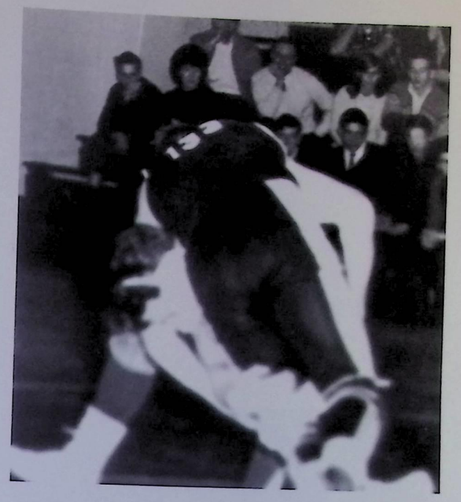

The 66-67 wrestling squad could easily be deemed highly successful. They finished the regular season with an 8—3 record. They placed fourth at Brecksville, a traditional first at the sectionals, and second at Districts only to Maple Heights. Two boys finished the season with undefeated records, Bill Murton and Mark Verdi. Four went to state, Frank Kovacs, Sam Schiciano, Bill Murton, and Mark Verdi.

This year's most exciting match was with Maple Heights, as it usually is. Sophomore Pete Ivkovic nearly upset State Champion Tom Milkovich to start off the match. Frank Yoo battled all the way with Dan Milkovich but was pinned. In the 120 lbs. division Frank Kovacs won a 14—11 see-saw affair. Sam Schiciano decisioned previously unbeaten Bill Black by a score of 7—0. The next three were won by Maple. Then Bill Murton was given a pin by the referee because his opponent stalled several times. Dan Jankowski then pinned to ice the match for Maple. Dale Stakich drew with John Blank to end an exciting night of wrestling. The final score was 18—24.

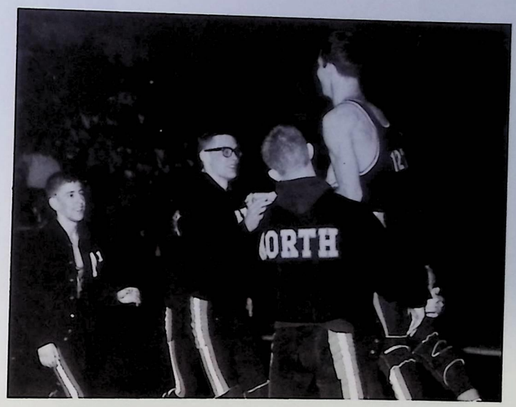

Bill Carter pinning his Berea opponent.

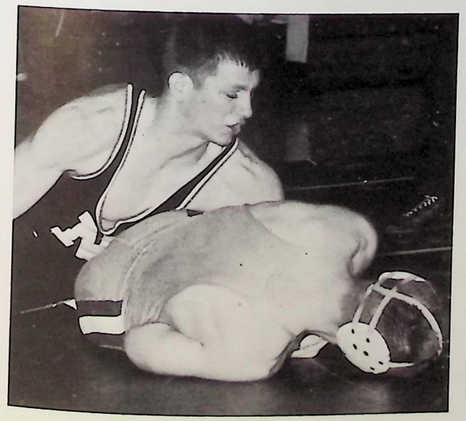

Dale Colagross, 133 pounder, goes for the takedown and two points.

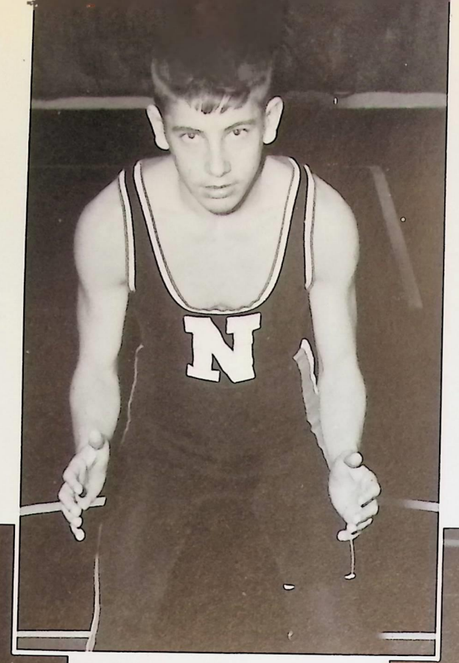

Sam Schiciano is greeted by teammates after decisioning Bill Black of Maple, 7—0.

North's best, Bill Murton, all year on the mat going for another victory.

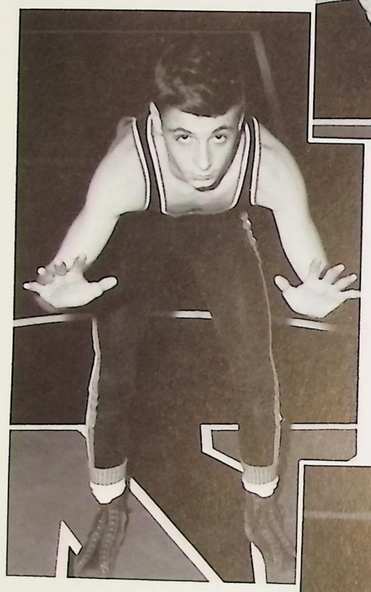

Pete Ivkovic registers the first pin of his high school career.

The Big Four for North this season. They had a combined record of 39—3—2. No previous combination of four wrestlers had such a tremendous record.

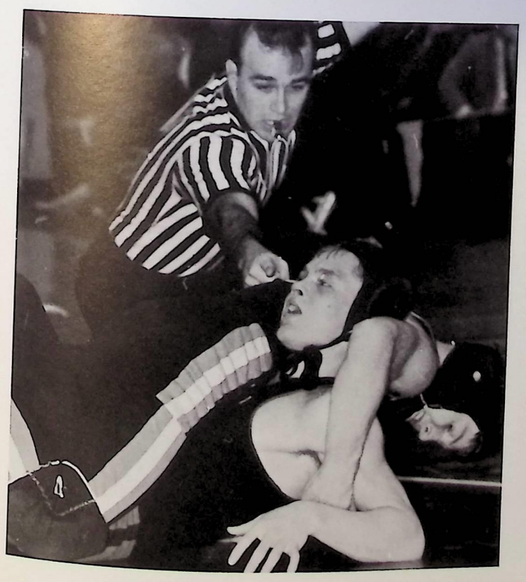

Our man at state, Frank Kovacs. The most underrated of the "Big Four" but he scored 75% of North's total points at State.

The traditional ride of North has been the Figure Four. This is an extremely hard manuever to execute. Below Frank Kovacs is shown pinning an opponent with his "4".

The very best of all the seniors was Sam Schiciano. He lost his opening bout, then won nine more in a row. His final record was 21—2.

Dave Green, sophomore 165 pounder is going for the takedown against Berea. He pinned in 4 minutes and 30 seconds.

Bill Nightengale 135'er was one of Coach Smarto's greatest wrestlers last season. He posted a fine 8 and 3 record.

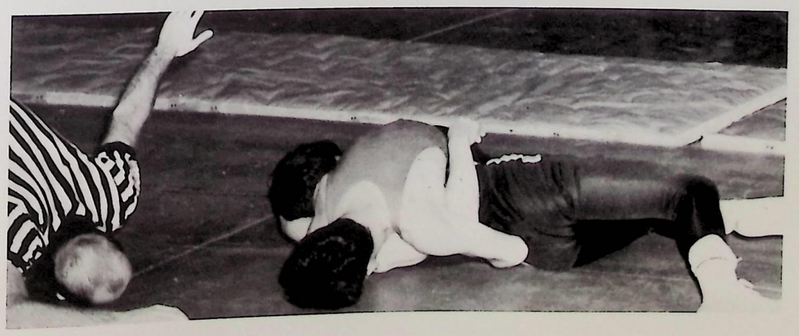

Paul Bush continued his treck to the varsity. This year he posted a 9 and 2 record, and recorded 5 pins.

Tom Daly was Mr. Smarto's number one man. The first 8 matches saw him undefeated and then caught the flu and was unable to finish the season.

Dan Winchell scored more points than any other JV wrestler. He was the only wrestler to wrestle every match and go undefeated.

Golf Team

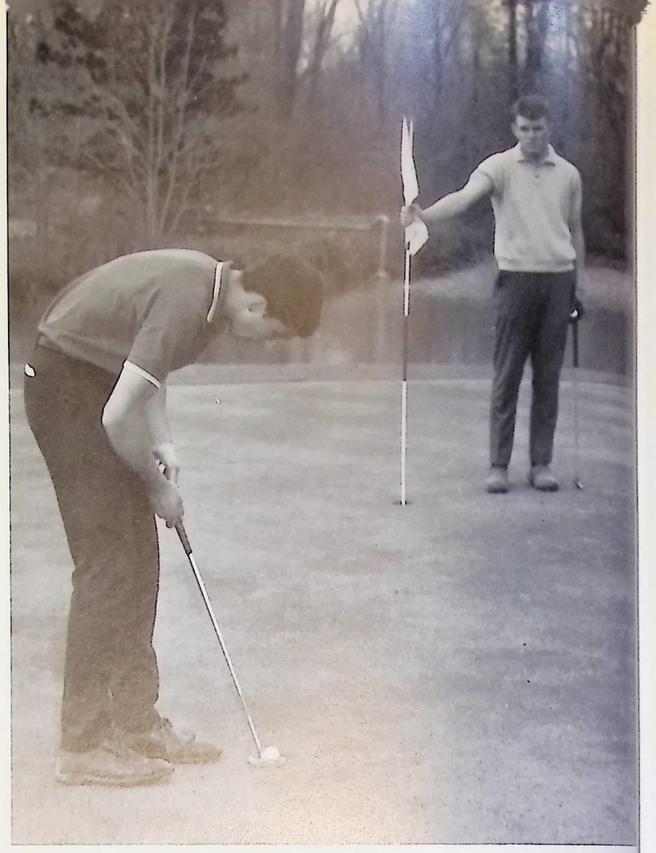

Ranger Golfers Tear Up the Links

The Ranger golfers of 1965-66 led themselves to a very successful season, the best in the history of North High. They drew the season to a climax with a final overall record of 23—1, losing only their last match of the season to Bedford.

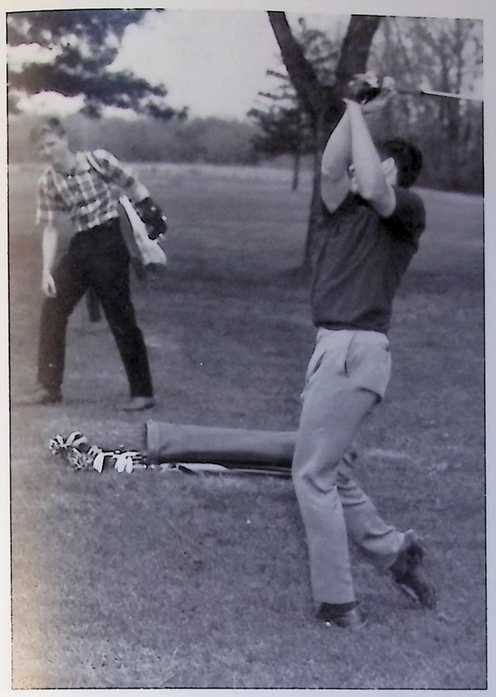

Each of the golfers combined a good steady average with a couple of excellent "clutch" rounds to win first place honors in the G.C.C., with a conference record of 9—1. Key victories were picked up with two wins against top ranked Berea, and one against Bedford, thus clinching them the conference title.

Jeff George was the only senior last year, with Sam Schiciano, Walt George, and Ken Kastellic returning in the starting three this year. Also returning are Bob Greenwald and Ray Tuwalski.

The boys along with coaches Quarzo and Perrotti have their eyes set on state finals this upcoming year.

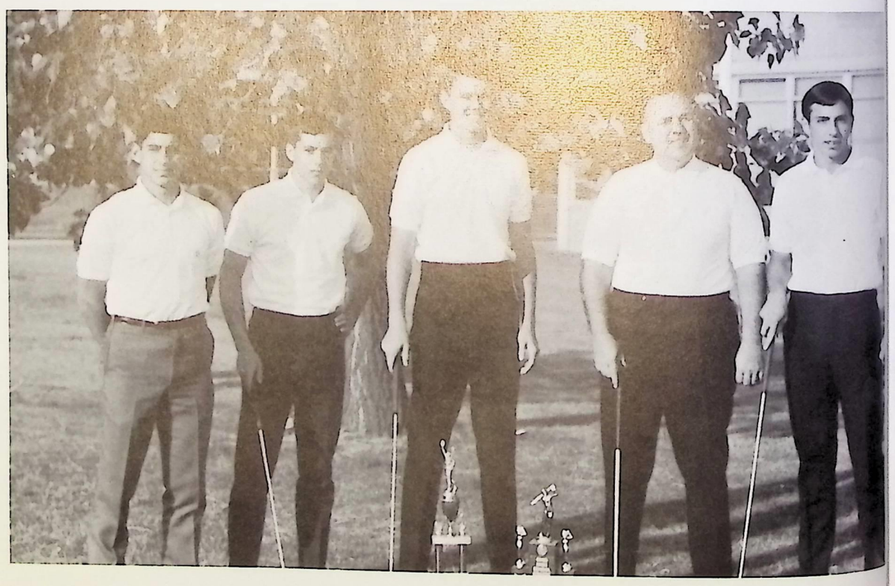

Senior Jeff George putts on the 7th green at Lost Nation while Ken Kastellic tends the pin.

Cheerleaders

North High School's cheerleaders were an integral part of the athletic activities during the past year. Not only did they encourage the support of the athletic teams among themselves, but their constant and enthusiastic cheers and skits at the pep assemblies added to the enthusiasm of the entire student body. By cheering through thick and thin, and rain or snow, the cheerleaders showed their approval and support for all our teams.

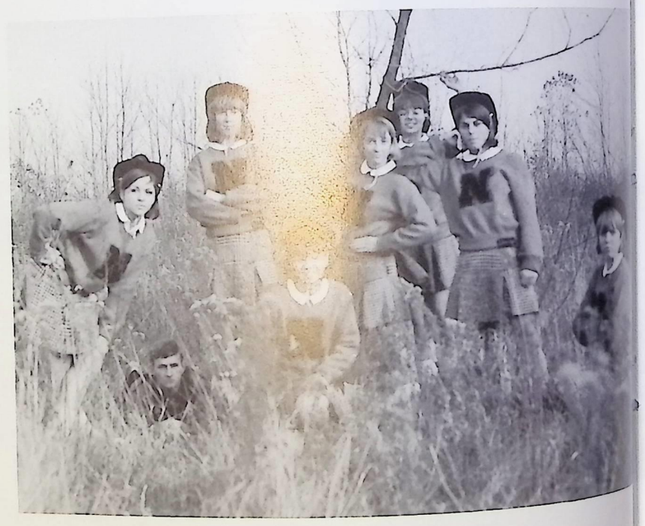

The work for the cheerleaders started in the summer following their selection in the spring of 1966. It continued through football, basketball, and wrestling seasons. The 13 varsity cheerleaders this year consisted of 2 seniors, Grace Wills and Darlene Quercioli, and 11 juniors. The junior varsity squad contained 10 sophomores.

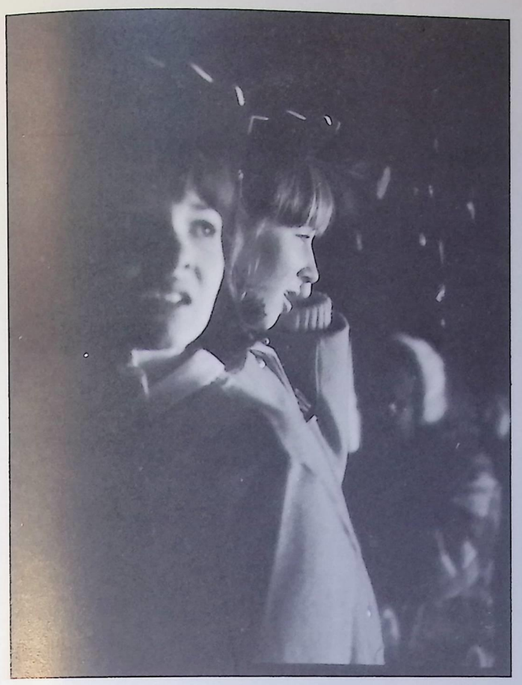

Cheerleaders Pat Masters, Adelle Fox, Marlene O'Hara, the Ranger, Lorraine Dobre, Kris Grazulis, and Donna Sudbury.

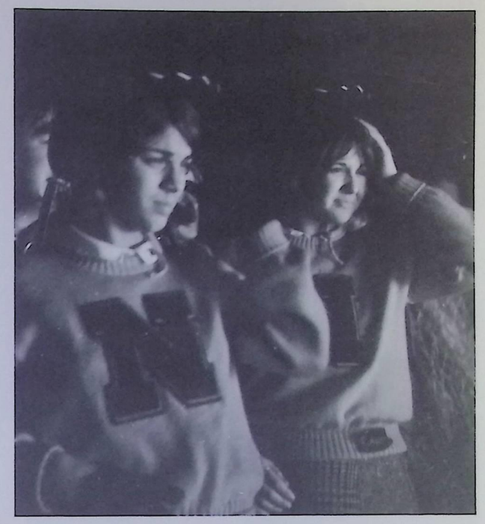

Our seniors Grace Wills and Darlene Querceoli with Ranger Eric Uhler.

Marching Band

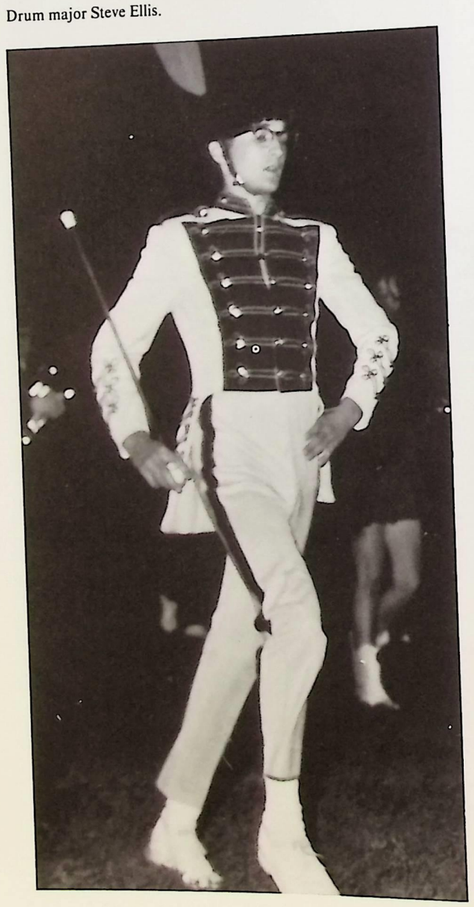

Practicing in rain or shine on almost every Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday night during football season was North High School's Ranger Marching Band. With senior drum majors, Ron Brann and Steve Ellis, leading the seventy-seven members onward, the band performed before thousands at half-time shows during the ten game season.

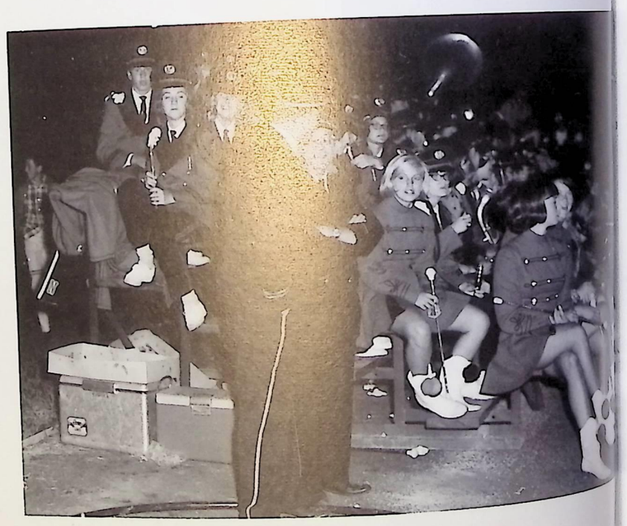

Work started for the band at band camp the week before school began. Marching at least six hours daily at the camp, the band began to co-ordinate their shows. As the marching routines and shows were learned, the seventy-seven individuals became one large marching unit. Their perfection became evident as they performed their intricate shows during the football season.

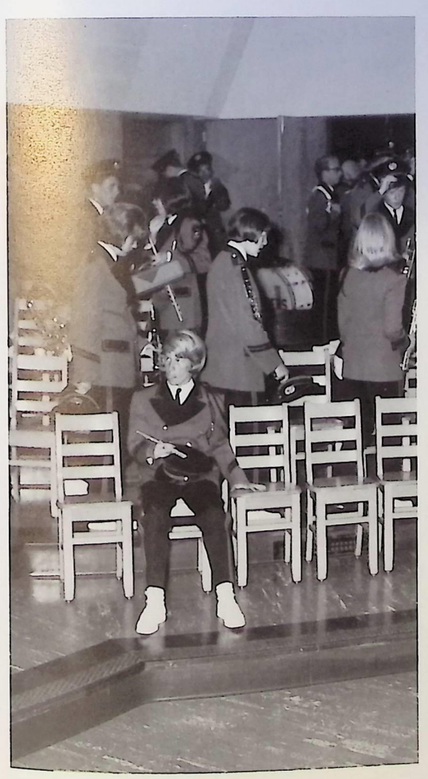

Our other spirited drum major Ron Brann.

Drum major Steve Ellis.

North High School's Vocational Department is one of the best in the nation. Included in the overall program is auto mechanics, various shops, drafting, electricity, cosmetology, and business. Upon graduation, the students of these programs are able to continue with advanced training or to actually begin working in their respective fields.

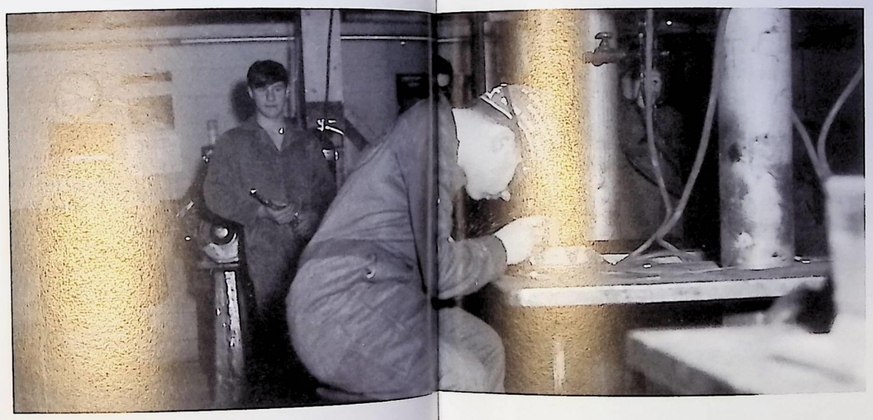

The students in the vocational programs study English and government or American history depending upon their grade. Related studies are also pursued in the two year program to give all participants a well-rounded background.

Student Council

As always, this year's Student Council was an active part of North High School. For the first time in the history of North the president of the Council was a girl, Deidre Hoye. She and her officers, along with the representatives from the seven classes, did much to make the school a better place.

The activities of the Student Council were many and varied. Work began with the opening day of school when flowers were presented to the teachers. Homecoming and the bonfire for the Warren Harding—North game followed. The Student Council also sponsored the annual Talent Show and the Hootenanny.

The advisor for the Student Council this year was Mr. Luce.

Service, Leadership, Character, and Scholarship. These four characteristics must be present in all National Honor Society members. The members at North are no exception. Proposed and elected by the faculty, prospective members must have a 3.0 cumalative average and have attended North for at least one year. They are then judged and evaluated in terms of the four requirements. The elected members then are accepted into membership in the spring of the year at the National Honor Society Assembly. Each year about 30 juniors and 30 seniors are taken into the membership.

Diversified

The Diversified Cooperative Training program for Seniors is in its fifth year of existence at North. The students in this program, 20 this year, take Senior English and American Government plus two periods of Related Studies. The afternoon is spent at their jobs. The jobs represented are many and varied. Basically they are any semi-skilled or skilled jobs not covered by any of the vocational or other cooperative programs. The coordinator of this program is Mr. Grether.

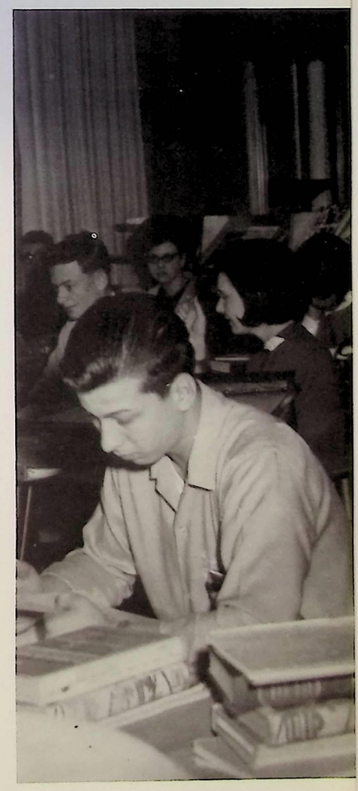

Students in the Distributive Cooperative Training Program are North and South High Seniors who are interested in the retailing and selling of merchandise. By working for local merchants in the area for a minimum of 15 hours weekly and a maximum of 33 hours weekly, they get on the job training in their respective area of interest. As they learn through practice and experience, they are graded by their employers. The students in this program take English, government, and 2 periods of related studies.

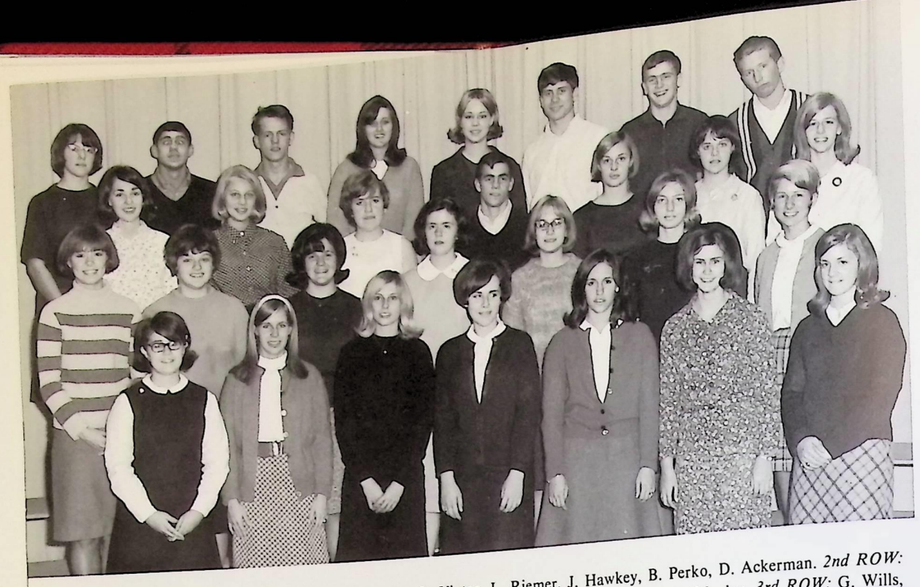

An event which all students look forward to is the annual Employer-Employee banquet.

Behind any successful venture is a group of hard-working people. This is especially true for a venture of such importance as a school yearbook. Work begins early in the year and it is not finished until that last yearbook reaches its eagerly waiting owner. The staffs spend many hours doing lay-outs, taking pictures, and writing the copy. But any staff member, especially those who are seniors, will assure you that all the work was rewarded when the 1967 Lens is a reality and not just 3-r's and proofs.

This year's Lens is the product of years of tradition. The first Lens appeared in 1939 and the name has remained all this time. This year, for the first time in the book's history, the Lens features color.

And so—another Lens—a tribute to the staff.

Searchlight Staff

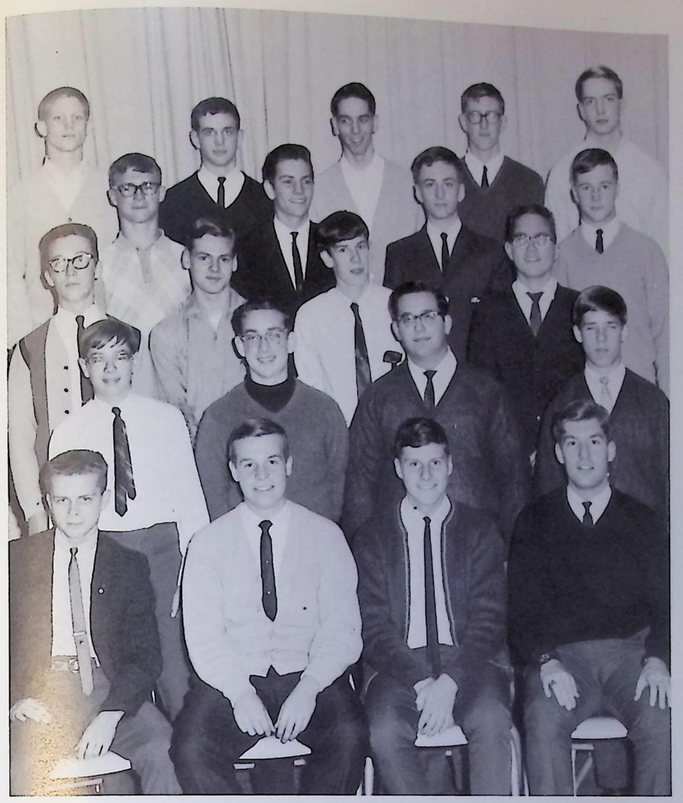

North High School's student newspaper, the "Searchlight", has memories and traditions as long and varied as North High School itself. In existence at Willoughby Union High School, it soon emerged as one of the first extracurricular activities at North when the school was established. Since then, the "Searchlight" has helped create, break, and carry on traditions with its reporting.

Yet along with the memories has come years of hard work for each year's editors and their staffs. Articles must be written, corrected, typed, and laid out. After the newspaper is sent in for printing, a sigh of relief is heard—but not for long for the next deadline is fast approaching and work must again be started.

Key Club

One of the newest clubs at North High School is the Key Club, now in its second year of existence. Affiliated with the Kiwanis International, an organization established to do service to others, its purpose is to serve the school and the community in any way possible. One of the biggest projects this year was the sponsoring of student buses to the away games during football season.

The advisor of the Key Club is Mr. Carter.

One of the activities at North which benefits all students is the Thespians. Under the direction of Mr. Moyer, the members produced the junior class play, Time Out for Ginger and the senior class play, Rally Round the Flag, Boys. A thespian play was also produced.

Any person who has acted in any of the school plays or who has been on the production end is eligible to be a member. The production staff includes such things as make-up, costumes, props, lighting, scenery, posters and ticket sales, and stage managing. These areas are just as important as acting for a successful play.

Future Teachers of America

One of the older clubs at North High School is the Future Teachers Association. With Mrs. Blum as the sponsor, the club gave interested students information and practical experience in the teaching profession.

Helping to advance interest on the student level in the American Field Service through activities and information was North High School's American Field Service Club.

Friendship Club

"Our tears will be many when parting goodbye, but memories never will die." So go the last lines of the Friendship Club song, which will linger in the hearts of all Senior girls in the club.

The Friendship Club is the oldest club in the district. Originated by Miss Knight about 30 years ago, the club was originally affiliated with the Y.M.C.A., but over the years this bond was broken.

The Friendship Club Formal is perhaps the best known activity of the club.

North High School's Varsity Club is open to any boy who has earned a varsity letter in any sport. The club's purpose is to promote the highest ideals of sportsmanship, leadership, cooperation, and school service in athletic and school activities.

The Varsity Club also holds some social activities. The best known of these is the annual Snowball Dance. The club also selects the Snowball Queen, a senior, and her court.

Rifle Team

Unknown to many students, North High School has a fine rifle team. Last year they captured the league all-time record by shooting 1,852 points out of a possible 2,000 points. This is the highest number of points ever scored by any high school rifle team in Northeastern Ohio. The rifle team also took second place in the Ohio-Pennsylvania tournament held at Warren, Ohio last year.

The rifle team has 15 members shooting varsity. The top eight shooters shoot in every match. The boys don't have a monopoly in this sport either, because last year 2 of the 5 top shooters were girls.

A yearbook's purpose is to help you remember, years from now, those three seemingly endless years of high school. As a senior I can tell you looking back they don't seem quite so endless, but rather a very brief flitting period of our lives which we little appreciate. Maybe with the help of this yearbook we will be able to appreciate what we could not before. I hope this will be the case with this yearbook. The best of it all has been captured to save for you someday to appreciate.

I have made the job of creating a yearbook seem solemn and serious. It is in one way, but still it is very rewarding and a good deal of fun. And I am certain it taught everyone on the staff a lesson in human relations and how important it is to keep one's sense of humor in the face of crisis. We all will remember spending hours pouring over lay-outs, taking the same picture for the fourth time, the Lens room in all its chaotic splendor, that broken-down old desk with all the drawers that stuck in damp-weather, one very wet snowball fight, and last but not least popcorn at Christmas time. There are just two questions I would like to ask, what happened to our old yearbooks, and who brought in that huge chunk of Swiss cheese? I'm sorry but we finally had to throw it away.

Now to get down to the serious business of thanking everyone who helped put the 1967 Lens together. My first thanks go to a wonderful and co-operative staff. Though at times we had our differences of opinion they were resolved and we managed to complete the book and remain friends. Next we all must thank Mr. Cicek, our faculty advisor. He acted as peacemaker for the group and the only one of us who stayed calm through the process. Thank you to both Mr. Cicek and Mr. Gregorc, our administrative advisor, for their advice and guidance. Finally thanks to Mr. Prentner, representative from American Yearbook Company, for his technical assistance, Raimor Studios for all their time and energy, and to Mr. Fuerst, our business advisor.

With these comments I close the 1967 Lens.
