

Pathways to Proficient Reading (PPR) for Oklahoma Educators

About the Course

Join expert-led sessions that bring research to practice through powerful models like the Simple View of Reading and Scarborough's Reading Rope. Designed for educators and administrators, this course equips you to identify signs of dyslexia and deliver effective, inclusive instruction for all learners within a strong MTSS framework.

Commitment Includes:

Asynchronous pre-knowledge inventory

17

17 asynchronous learning sections (approx. 45 hours)

14

14 hours of synchronous coaching community of practice sessions

Submit 8 artifacts to demonstrate content mastery

Completion of post-knowledge inventory

OSDE Micro-Credential

Exclusively for Oklahoma educators. Successful completion of PPR will result in:

- ✓ Micro-credential badge
- ✓ $2,000 stipend
- ✓ Printed PPR Practitioners Guide
- ✓ Oral Language Talking Deck

Course Kick-Off Meetings

Join the Oklahoma Office of Special Education to learn how to enroll in PPR and receive your course materials.

- July 28: Oklahoma City
- July 29: Ardmore
- July 30: Jenks

To receive the $2,000 stipend, PPR must be completed on time with an average grade of 80% or higher.*

Learn more about this fully state-funded literacy learning opportunity.

Ready to enroll?

Email Megan Salisbury at megan.salisbury@sde.ok.gov