AH Res Wound Care 2025

Audio	Video
[Music]	Gold and white L.S.U. Health Shreveport logo on a purple background Text: School of Health Professions and Sciences Wound Management Residency
[Sarah] Hi, my name is Doctor Sarah Murnane. I'm a physical therapist, certified wound specialist, certified lymphedema therapist,	Blonde woman in black blazer (Sarah) standing in wound treatment room Text: Sarah Murnane, P.T., D.P.T., C.W.S. Certified Wound Specialist and director of the Wound Management Residency here at L.S.U. Health Shreveport.	Sarah on camera Accredited since 2011, L.S.U. Health Shreveport holds the honor of being the first	Therapist bandages wound on patient's leg wound management physical therapy post professional residency in the country.	Patient getting calf and ankle wrapped
Our 13 month residency provides advanced clinical management for patients with integumentary conditions	Sarah and resident placing air wraps on patient's legs through a rigorous didactic program and mentored clinical practice.	Resident working at a computer Residents receive over 300 instructional hours through coursework, self-study, journal clubs, and research activities,	Residents cutting orthodics and grinding them to size as well as over 1500 hours of direct patient care that includes 1 to 1 mentoring.	Air wraps being fitted onto a patient
Residents have the ability to practice within our Faculty Practice Clinic	Therapist wearing surgical gown and mask talking with patient here at L.S.U. Health Shreveport, as well as the adjacent level one Trauma Hospital.	Clinical and hospital exteriors
They have the opportunity to attend rounds, physician clinics, conferences, as well as observe surgeries.	Therapist wrapping a patient's ankle
We have numerous advanced modalities available to residents, including ultrasonic assisted debridement,	Therapist in surgical mask and gown debriding a wound

Audio	Video
UV light, mist therapy, electrical stimulation,	Therapist talking with patient with a wound vac on his hand casting, and fabrication of custom orthotics. The wound management residency	Resident sanding a custom orthodic holds a 100% graduation rate.	Therapist measuring a leg wound
After completion, the residents have the opportunity to sit for the American Board of Wound Management Certified Specialist Exam.	Therapist explaining settings on wound vac to patient
Our residents hold a 100% pass rate on that exam.	Patient being placed in air wraps
Our residents may also choose to sit for the American Physical Therapy Association's Board Certified Wound Specialist exam.	Therapist wrapping patient's calf
For any further questions, please feel free to reach out to me at Sarah dot Murnane zero three at l.s.u.h.s. dot e.d.u. Thank you.	Sarah on camera
[Music]	Gold and white L.S.U. Health Shreveport logo on a purple background Text: School of Health Professions and Sciences Wound Management Residency Sarah Murnane, P.T., D.P.T. Director, Wound Management Residency Sarah dot Murnane zero three @ l.s.u.h.s. dot e.d.u.