July 10, 2025

Meet Mrs. Brandi Nichols

New Principal at the Briar Hills Elementary School

Mrs. Nichols is a veteran educator with over 18 years of experience. She joined Fulton County Schools in 2012 as a fourth-grade teacher at Oak Knoll Elementary. For the past two years, she has been serving as the principal at Parklane Elementary in Fulton County Schools. Prior to this role, Mrs. Nichols spent seven years as an assistant principal in South Fulton and Roswell.

A native of Orlando, Florida, Mrs. Nichols earned her bachelor's degree from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, her master's degree in educational leadership from Argosy University, and her Education Specialist degree from Kennesaw State University. Her diverse experience includes roles as a fourth-grade teacher, seventh-grade teacher, administrative assistant, curriculum support teacher, and assistant principal.

Mrs. Nichols enjoys spending time with her husband, who is also an educator, their three children, and one grandson. She loves traveling, reading, and watching football.

As a transformational leader, Mrs. Nichols strives to foster authentic relationships with all stakeholders to create a collaborative school community. Her passion lies in empowering others to be their best and setting high educational expectations for the young people she encounters. She is dedicated and excited to join the New Conley Hills community, where she looks forward to bonding with students, parents, staff, and the broader community.

Mrs. Nichols is thrilled to take the next steps in her leadership journey as a towering figure in education!