

The Fresno High Learner Profile: THE WARRIOR WAY

RISK-TAKER/ COURAGEOUS

- Warriors problem solve and look for multiple solutions.
- Warriors create safe environments for risk-taking and being courageous.
- Warriors take wholesome risks to develop their thinking and learning.
- Warriors develop and support environments where new roles (presenting, collaborating, public speaking) and ideas are faced with courage.

PRINCIPLED

- Warriors live by the Golden Rule: "Do to others as you would have them do to you."
- Warriors develop, agree on and support classroom social contracts.
- Warriors respect themselves, others and the campus.
- Warriors use appropriate language for school and the professional world.

REFLECTIVE

- Warriors reflect on how their actions affect themselves and others.
- Warriors reflect on their learning to determine gaps that still need to be addressed.
- Warriors reflect on their effort applied and the outcome shown in grades.
- Warriors know their strengths and limitations to best work with others.

COMMUNICATOR

- Warriors seek first to understand, then to be understood.
- Warriors strive to mediate conflicts.
- Warriors are aware of when to use private or public voices.
- Warriors value and plan for feedback on how they are doing.
- Warriors plan and are involved in lessons to include complex talk, text and writing.

OPEN-MINDED

- Warriors embrace the views of others and respect one another's differences.
- Warriors acknowledge and learn from the beliefs and values of others.
- Warriors utilize a non-judgmental attitude of others.
- Warriors support multiple solutions to solving the same problem.

BALANCED

- Warriors have school spirit and are involved in community service and outreach.
- Warriors set goals and take daily actions to reach those goals.
- Warriors pledge to graduate on time, ready for college and career.
- Warriors support others involved in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities.
- Warriors are prepared with school supplies, backpacks and completed assignments.

CARING

- Warriors respect each other in all situations.
- Warriors give back to community organizations through service.
- Warriors care about the campus by helping each other, by supporting our teams, and by keeping our great school clean.
- Warriors reach out to other students and staff members who are in need.
- Warrior staff show they care in multiple ways (greet students, connect with students, formally and informally mentor students, sponsor clubs and activities)

THINKER

- Warriors connect ideas to past experiences.
- Warriors are willing to debate topics and challenge status quo.
- Warriors are engaged and ask good questions; Warriors respectfully ask, "Why?"

KNOWLEDGEABLE

- Warriors teach each other and impart knowledge to others as they gain experience.
- Warriors are able to demonstrate their learning.
- Warrior staff always share their successes with others.

INQUIRER

- Warriors are driven to find answers and accurate information.
- Warriors use evidence and data to support our thinking and decisions.
- Warriors ask questions to deepen their thinking.
- Warriors are determined to find the answers to everyday problems and issues.