

Charleston County School District
Office of Communications
 75 Calhoun St.,
 Charleston, SC 29401
 (843) 937-6300

Media Advisory

CCSD Students Learning About Leadership from Medal of Honor Recipients

Who: Media outlets are welcome and encouraged to attend.

What: The National Medal of Honor Center for Leadership is launching its inaugural Junior Fellowship program in July 2025 with a five-day leadership and service boot camp for 27 students at St. John's High School. The boot camp will feature two Medal of Honor recipients, Staff Sergeant Clinton L. Romesha and Master Sergeant Earl D. Plumlee, who both served in Operation Enduring Freedom, and a robust schedule of activities.

After the boot camp, the fellowship will transition into a nine-month journey with monthly leadership challenges combined with virtual meet-ups, mentorship, and community service projects.

Charleston County School District leaders will be available to discuss this opportunity for students in the Johns Island area.

When: Tuesday, July 15, 2025, at 10:00 a.m.

Where: St. John's High School, 1518 Main Rd, Johns Island, SC 29455

For more information, contact CCSD's Office of Communication at (843) 937-6303 or visit www.mohcenterforleadership.org.

###

About the Charleston County School District

Charleston County School District (CCSD) is a nationally accredited school district committed to providing equitable and quality educational opportunities for all its students. CCSD is the second-largest school system in South Carolina and represents a unique blend of urban, suburban, and rural schools spanning 1,300 square miles along the coast. CCSD serves approximately 51,000 students in 90 schools and specialized programs.

CCSD offers a diverse portfolio of educational options and specialized programs delivered to the students of CCSD through neighborhood, magnet, IB (international baccalaureate), Montessori, and charter schools and programs. Rich educational opportunities for students include programs in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (STEM); music and other creative and performing arts; career and technical preparation programs; military; dual credit; and many more.