

Santa Barbara County Education Office Artificial Intelligence

FREE

2025-2026 VIRTUAL SESSIONS

3:45 p.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Sessions are independent of each other

AI Virtual Sessions are for TK-12 educators who want to explore the impacts of AI on educational systems, teaching and learning, ethics and culture.

SEPT 10

AI and Universal Design for Learning

- Highlights from UDL 3.0 and inclusive AI strategies
- Using AI to support differentiation
- Protecting student privacy and data

REGISTER

OCT 8

AI and Civic Engagement

- AI and media literacy (deepfakes, bias, misinformation)
- AI's role in elections and civic discourse
- Teaching students to think critically with and about AI

REGISTER

NOV 12

AI and English Learners

- AI tools to support lesson planning and scaffolding
- Enhancing access and engagement for ELs
- Differentiation with cultural and linguistic responsiveness

REGISTER

DEC 10

AI and STEAM

- AI for inquiry, coding, and data exploration
- Supporting STEAM projects with generative tools
- Career connections and ethical discussions in STEM

REGISTER

FEB 11

AI and Students with Disabilities

- Tools for accessibility and personalized supports
- AI-assisted IEP planning and modifications
- Ensuring equity and responsible use

REGISTER

MAR 11

AI and the Writing Process

- AI for brainstorming, drafting, and revision
- Teaching writing with integrity in the age of AI
- Supporting student voice and creativity

REGISTER

MAY 13

Reflecting Back, Projecting Forward

- Key takeaways and lessons learned from GenAI so far
- Trends shaping the future of AI in education
- Planning next steps for AI implementation

REGISTER

Learn more: SBCEO.ORG/AI

For more information, please contact:

Tiffany Carson Director, School and District Support • tcarson@sbceo.org

Lauren Aranguren Director, Equitable Learning Systems • laranguren@sbceo.org

