PREP ANNUAL
REPORT

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Friends of Fordham Prep,

I hope this letter finds you in good health and high spirits. As we reflect on the 2023–2024 academic year at Fordham Preparatory School, we are filled with gratitude for the incredible support of our community.

The Annual Fund plays a vital role in sustaining the quality of education and enriching the experience for our Rams. Your generosity ensures that we continue to provide a transformative Catholic Jesuit education to young men from diverse backgrounds.

The Annual Fund directly impacts every aspect of life at Fordham Prep. It supports academic programs, extracurricular activities, campus beautification, and faculty development. Our commitment to academic excellence, spiritual growth, and social justice is deeply rooted in the Ignatian tradition, and the Annual Fund is crucial in upholding these values. Contributions enable us to offer financial aid to deserving students, invest in innovative teaching methods, and maintain our state-of-the-art facilities.

In the past year, we have seen remarkable achievements among our students and faculty. Our students continue to excel in academics, athletics, and the arts, while our dedicated faculty members bring new ideas and inspiration into the classroom every day. These accomplishments are a testament to the strength and generosity of our community. Your support ensures that we can build on this success and continue to foster an environment where every student can thrive.

As we look to the future, we invite you to join us in making a meaningful impact on the lives of our Rams. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference. By contributing to the Annual Fund, you are investing in the potential of our students and the enduring legacy of Fordham Preparatory School. Thank you for your continued support and commitment to our Catholic Jesuit mission. Together, we can ensure that Fordham Prep remains a place where young men are educated, inspired, and prepared to lead with integrity and compassion all for the Greater Glory of God.

Go Rams!

VINNIE MURRAY '98

SUPPORTING THE SUCCESS OF OUR RAMS

“I just never cease to be impressed with the young men here,” stated Fordham Prep trustee Vinnie Murray '98, Vice Chairman of the Board of Trustees.

A proud Ram through and through, he revels in celebrating the accomplishments of today's students, just as he cherishes the memories of his own time on campus. His unwavering support for the school is evident in his active involvement, from serving on the Finance Committee to cheering on the Rams at sporting events and hosting a table at the annual Alumni Senior Breakfast.

“Fordham Prep taught me how to learn... My memories of the Prep inspire me to continue to give back.”

— Vinnie Murray '98

He remembers his time as a student at Fordham Prep fondly, bringing him back to the historic Rose Hill campus to see his fellow Rams and former teachers often at reunions and other school events.

Murray is also a member of the Shea-McDonough Legacy Society. He was motivated to join by a desire to leave a lasting impact on a school that shaped his formative years profoundly. Reflecting on memories from his student days, he credits Fordham Prep for instilling in him not just academic knowledge but also valuable life lessons, particularly through experiences like the Emmaus retreat and service projects.

When asked about his membership in the legacy society, his support for the Annual Fund, and contributions to the Rev. Christopher J. Devron, SJ REACH Scholarship, Murray highlights the important roles they play in sustaining school operations and providing transformative opportunities to students of all backgrounds.

“Students come to us from wildly different backgrounds,” he explained. “They accomplish so much together and then they continue to go out and do incredible things in the world. The smiles on graduation day are a true testament to the greatness of Fordham Prep, and it's really gratifying to see.”

Murray believes deeply in the Prep's mission of opening doors through Jesuit education, echoing the impact of his own transformative experiences. He was excited for his own son, Bobby, to get a taste of the Prep experience through the Higher Achievement Program (HAP) in the summer of 2024.

“Fordham Prep taught me how to learn,” he stated. “I'd argue I got more out of my time at the Prep than I did in college. My memories of the Prep inspire me to continue to give back.”

He encourages others to engage with the community actively, whether through financial contributions, volunteering as a mentor, or by creating a new initiative to benefit students at the Prep. He highlights the George Jackson '76 Initiative for first-generation Rams and students of color, the FitzSimons Civics Education Initiative, and the faculty/staff-sponsored Unknown Mentor Scholarship as prime examples of ways to engage with the Prep as men and women for others.

“I got emotional when I first heard about the Unknown Mentor Scholarship,” Murray noted. The scholarship, started in 2021 by former science teacher and soccer coach Peter McNamara P’11, ’12, ’17, is given to students demonstrating academic ability and substantial financial need. The scholarship was named to pay tribute to the anonymous faculty and staff gifts to the fund. Recipients are also unknown to those outside of the scholarship committee.

“The faculty and staff don’t toot their horn so much about it but I think it’s something that deserves a bit more recognition and praise because it really goes to the heart of the Fordham Prep mission.”

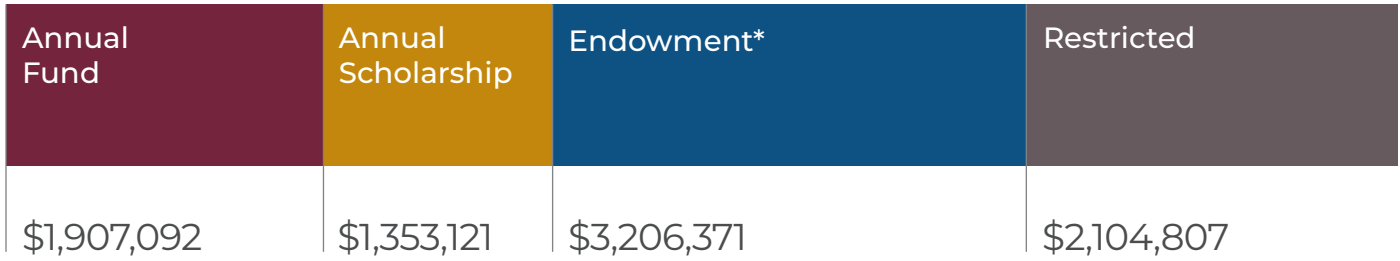

Looking ahead, Murray hopes to see Fordham Prep deepen its mission by expanding its endowment to increase financial aid and scholarships, ensuring accessibility for deserving students. ■

GENEROSITY SPANNING 40 YEARS OF ALUMNI

A trio of graduating classes unleashed a fundraising tsunami this past spring, collectively donating over $370,000 to create three new scholarships. The collective efforts of the classes of 1964, 1994, and 2004 ensure future Rams have access to the exceptional Catholic Jesuit education provided at Fordham Prep.

Members of the class of 1964 share the unique tradition of gathering each year on Ascension Thursday. Ahead of their 60th reunion at Fordham Prep, which fell on the class's favorite holy day, alumni announced a newly established fund: the Class of 1964 Scholarship.

This new scholarship has already collected $140,000 in gifts adding to the class of 1964's generous support of Fordham Prep's Charles DaParma '45 Scholarship, the Robert Murray '64 Scholarship, the John Vrionis '64 Scholarship, the Sgt. Robert Murray '64 Award, the Gonzaga Scholarship, and, most recently, the Robert O'Donnell '64 Award.

The Class of 1964 Scholarship will allow the Prep to offer tuition assistance and financial aid. Special thanks to 1964 Reunion Committee leaders Robert Reid, Fred Grein, and Bernie Preisser, and Committee members Tom Baffer, Mike Cesa, Bill Perry, George Robinson and Chuck Slivinski for organizing these gatherings and keeping alumni affinity for the Prep alive.

As they approached their 30th reunion this past May, the alumni Rams of 1994 launched a new class scholarship to ensure a lasting impact on the Prep's future. The scholarship helped double the class of 1994's participation for the 2023–2024 fiscal year.

Through a committed effort, the class has raised over $188,000 thus far, with a plan to increase their contributions leading up to their 35th reunion in 2029. The plan will run through their 50th reunion in 2044, during which the class will celebrate their newly minted status as Golden Rams.

Class of 1964 alumni celebrated their reunion on May 9, 2024.

The Class of 1994 Scholarship aims to support deserving students, mirroring the transformative experiences the class members had during their time at Fordham Prep. Their success underscores the potential for alumni to significantly shape the Prep's future.

After the sudden passing of their beloved classmate, Dan Doherty '04, in September 2023, alumni came together in an extraordinary way to give back to the Prep in his honor.

TOP: The Class of 1994 returned to the Prep on May 4, 2024 for their 30th Reunion.

BELOW: Class of 2004 alumni and friends gathered at Dunwoodie Golf Course on May 24, 2024 for the inaugural Dan Doherty '04 Memorial Golf Outing.

Since Doherty was an avid golf hobbyist, his fellow Rams thought a golf outing would be a fitting way to celebrate his life. Proceeds from the inaugural Dan Doherty '04 Memorial Golf Outing, held on May 24th at Dunwoodie Golf Course, would go toward the new Dan Doherty '04 Scholarship.

Donations began trickling in as the class celebrated their 20th reunion at the Prep on May 4th. The outing later that month raised $60,000 for the fund, and a generous donor matched the next $10,000 donated before the end of the 2023–2024 fiscal year.

The Dan Doherty '04 Scholarship is aimed at supporting a senior track athlete with financial need who embodies Dan's spirit of camaraderie, leadership, and compassion. The first Dan Doherty Scholar, Adriel Grullon '25, was named at the 2024 Track & Field Hall of Honor ceremony.

Special thanks to Dan Doherty '04 Scholarship Committee members Joe Altenau '04, Joe Amarosa '04, Vijay DaCosta '04, Brian Doherty '13, Kevin Hannon '04, Justin LaPoint '04, Jim Lundy '05, Gregory Sans '04, Ryan Timper '04, Matt Vazquez '04, and Gregory Westphal '04 for helping to establish the fund and organize the golf outing. ■

HONORING DENNIS McCORMACK '76

Dennis McCormack '76 had a memorable experience at Fordham Prep, both as a student and later as the Director of Development. He played football and ran track while studying at Fordham Prep. Upon returning to the historic Rose Hill campus in 1983, he was tasked with improving the Prep's fundraising programs, including planned giving, the annual fund, and capital campaigns. In 1987, he moved on to fill a Major Gifts Officer role at Boston College.

Laurie, the widow of Dennis McCormack, is fulfilling her late husband's ardent dream of supporting Fordham Prep, the institution he credited for inspiring his lifelong pursuit of excellence. McCormack often spoke of his deep-rooted connection to the Prep and his desire to make a planned gift, a wish left unrealized upon his passing in 2023. Honoring his memory and passion, Laurie has established an estate gift to Fordham Prep, transforming her husband's aspiration into a tangible legacy and ensuring his beloved alma mater continues to shape future generations.

"It's about people believing that being philanthropic and leaving behind something for others is a priority for them," Laurie explained. "Dennis believed in that and I only wish we had done it sooner so he could have seen the start of his legacy."

Laurie's choice to include Fordham Prep as a beneficiary of an IRA is a straightforward, yet impactful, way to create a lasting legacy. "Estate gifts can grow with you, allowing you to give a larger gift than you may have thought possible," she noted.

If you are inspired by Dennis McCormack's story, consider making Fordham Prep a beneficiary of your future generosity. By incorporating the Prep into your estate plans, you ensure that your assets are distributed according to your wishes, rather than being determined by state law. Taking this step not only secures your legacy but also supports the Catholic Jesuit experience Fordham Prep seeks to provide to students of all socioeconomic backgrounds. ■

Fordham Prep Director of Campus Ministry Mike Kravatz crossing the finish line on May 4, 2024 at Rock the Ridge, a 50-mile ultramarathon at Mohonk Preserve.

DO WHAT YOU LOVE IN SUPPORT OF FORDHAM PREP

“I got bit by the trail-running bug back in 2021,” said Fordham Prep Director of Campus Ministry Mike Kravatz P’23. His passion led him to participate in his first run, the 30-mile Shawangunk Ridge Trail (SRT) run, in September 2021. In May 2024, he completed the 50-mile Rock the Ridge ultramarathon at Mohonk Preserve to, in part, raise funds for Fordham Prep.

In a keynote speech during the Prep’s Dream Day in the fall of 2023, Kravatz mentioned his SRT run and later hinted at the possibility of tackling Rock the Ridge. Inspired by enthusiastic students from the Prep’s Ministry Leadership Team, he committed to the challenge. Over the next four months, Kravatz meticulously trained, incorporating long runs and early-morning loops around the historic Rose Hill campus to build endurance.

His participation in Rock the Ridge raised funds for Mohonk Preserve, achieving this goal through personal contributions from family and friends. His efforts speak to the importance of caring for our common home, as outlined in the 2015 Laudato si’ and mentioned in the 2023 Laudate Deum encyclicals by Pope Francis.

Encouraged by colleagues, he decided to extend his fundraising efforts to support the faculty- and staff-funded Unknown Mentor Scholarship at Fordham Prep for students of academic ability and substantial financial need. He sent an email to faculty and staff the day before the race, asking them to support his endeavor.

“When I think about my 18 years at Fordham Prep, I feel compelled to give back,” Kravatz explained. His son, Andrew ’23, graduated from the Prep, making his support for a community that had given so much to his family extremely meaningful to him.

Kravatz’s dedication to both running and fundraising reflects Fordham Prep’s mission to form “men for others.” For him, it is important to set an example for students by giving back to the Fordham Prep community.

“It’s part of our mission and it’s who we are as a school community,” he stated. “We strive to teach our students to be men for others and we strive to live it as well.”

“It’s part of our mission and it’s who we are as a school community. We strive to teach our students to be men for others and we strive to live it as well.”

— Mike Kravatz P’23

To do this, Kravatz recommends finding your passion and connecting it with a cause you care about.

“There are countless opportunities to give back to the Prep,” he noted, explaining that supporting causes doesn’t always require following traditional fundraising methods. Time spent doing what you love can help others, just as Kravatz’s efforts demonstrate.

Kravatz is considering another ultramarathon, inspired by a friend’s invitation and the chance to help students in need. He plans to do what he loves to support environmental causes and the Catholic Jesuit experience offered at Fordham Prep. ■

CHRISTOPHER LAUBER '79, CLASSICAL LANGUAGES TEACHER, & PAUL LAUBER '08, ENGLISH DEPARTMENT CHAIR

Standing on the Shoulders of Giants

“The teachers I had during my time as a student at Fordham Prep were such well-rounded people. We stand on the shoulders of giants,” said Classical Languages teacher Christopher Lauber '79 while reflecting on his inspiration for giving back to the school.

He and his son Paul Lauber '08, chairperson of the English department, have devoted a combined 31 years of service to Fordham Prep thus far. They have both enjoyed teaching at Fordham Prep alongside those who once taught them.

Looking back at his journey into education, Christopher admits that teaching was not something he had ever considered before completing a double major in Greek and Latin at Lehman College and Hunter College. When a friend of his told him they were looking for a middle-school Latin teacher at St. Joseph School in Bronxville, he took the chance and applied. Paul was born shortly after he began teaching at St. Joseph's.

While at St. Joseph School, Christopher realized a desire to return to the historic Rose Hill campus to teach. He kept his eye out for opportunities at Fordham Prep, and landed a spot on the Classics faculty in 1993. “I have been a donor ever since I started teaching here,” Christopher explained.

Paul had his eyes set on teaching from the start. However, while working on his Master of Science in teaching at Fordham University in Paul Lauber '08 (left), chairperson of the Prep's English department, and his father, Christopher Lauber '79 (right), of the Classics department, sit in room 252 at Fordham Prep.

“My experience studying English at Fordham Prep caused me to see myself recreating that experience as a teacher. It also inspired me to agree to become chair of the department later on.”

— Paul Lauber '08
Chairperson of the English department

2013, he almost switched majors. When Kevin Gilligan '83, P'11,'14, chairperson of the English department at the time, asked him if he wanted to teach part-time at Fordham Prep, his answer was a resounding yes.

“If I could teach anywhere, I wanted it to be at Fordham Prep,” he remembers thinking to himself while in college. Like his father, he is also inspired to give back to Fordham Prep because of his former teachers, especially the faculty members in the English department.

The Laubers enjoy supporting the Prep community with their time as well. Christopher volunteers at Prep events such as Merit Scholarship Night for incoming students and is excited to chaperone an Emmaus retreat this year. Paul looks forward to chaperoning the Milan Global Education program exchange, succeeding recent retiree and former Director of Christian Service Paul Homer as moderator of the Bluegrass Club, and continuing his work with the Prep's Academic Support Center. ■

SHEA-McDONOUGH LEGACY SOCIETY

Since it was established in 1984 and renamed the Shea-McDonough Legacy Society in 2019, we have welcomed and recognized alumni, parents, friends and other benefactors who have invested in the Prep as they have their own families. Their gifts — both modest and large — have played a critical role in advancing Fordham Prep’s mission to educate young men in faith, scholarship and service to become “men for others.” In the past year, bequests to the Prep have ranged from four- to six-figure gifts. While some gifts are directed to Annual Scholarships, the majority of gifts are designated to the Prep’s areas of greatest need, representing the supreme generosity and loyalty of so many kind and thoughtful Ram alumni.

Named in honor of longtime Prep faculty members and revered teachers Rev. Arthur V. Shea, SJ and Harry L. McDonough, membership in the Society ensures that your legacy includes a meaningful contribution toward Fordham Prep’s long-term stability. All donors who inform us that the Prep is part of their estate plans, which may include a bequest and/or charitable income gifts, become members of the Shea-McDonough Legacy Society.

Q&A WITH VICTOR CHATELAIN '11

Fordham Prep George Jackson '76 Initiative Mentor, Former REACH Scholar

Q: What was Fordham Prep like when you were a student here?

A: Fordham Prep has always been a faith-based environment with an emphasis on service to the community. It was certainly that when I attended, with utmost importance on academics and scholarship. As a student, we were given latitude to explore different clubs and sports, service opportunities, and immersion trips. We were also able to meet people from many different communities and areas where we may never have had a chance to meet if we weren't attending Fordham Prep.

Q: What activities did you participate in while attending Fordham Prep?

A: I was part of the Kawaida Club, Spanish Club, and the Anime Club. I participated in the Ignatian Solidarity Summit in Washington, D.C., and went on Diversity Retreats.

Q: What do you remember most about your time as a Fordham Prep student?

A: I remember building some of the longest-lasting memories with my best friends, whom I still speak to today. I tried to create a class schedule to align with their free periods or lunch periods. I also remember taking trips with Mrs. Wanda Piñeiro P'99 to different cultural restaurants and playing "Shmolley" on the backfield. As an upperclassman, I remember holding the applause for entirely too long for the incoming freshmen at the annual Mass and assembly.

Q: Tell us more about your involvement with the George Jackson '76 Initiative. How did you find out about the program and what has your experience as a mentor been like?

A: I started out as a supporter of the initiative knowing I wanted to get involved as a mentor. Some of my closest friends, Ernest Esparza '11, Justin Pichardo '11, and Elio Fernandez '11, were part of the original group of alumni from my year leading the effort. Since then, I've been part of the leadership group within the George Jackson '76 Mentorship Program (GJMP), and I have a group of mentees of my own that I work with. The experience over the last few years has been a fulfilling one, especially since the first group of boys have recently finished their freshman year of college. It's gratifying to see how far they've come. Currently, I mentor a junior at the Prep and I'm excited to see his growth and development.

Q: What is your hope for the George Jackson '76 Initiative overall and the program's mentees?

A: My hope is to bridge the gap for first-generation college-bound students. I want to be a resource for them and be somewhat of a safety net for students of color who otherwise may not have that as they transition into college and beyond. My ultimate hope is to expand this to the other Jesuit schools in the greater New York area and give this experience to other students who would otherwise not have this opportunity.

Q: What fuels your desire to support Fordham Prep as a donor and volunteer?

A: I think it's the fact that the Prep's mission is bigger than my own. Fordham Prep has demonstrated a concerted effort to support initiatives like GJMP through the support of faculty, staff, trustees, alumni, and parents. I align with many of the Prep's initiatives personally and will continue to do my part to see them through.

Q: Anything else you'd like to add?

A: I urge all alumni to get involved and give back to the Prep, if not monetarily, then with their time. ■

George Jackson Scholars have gone on to study at Fairfield University, Fordham University, Morehouse College, Stony Brook University, University of Scranton, and Williams College. Learn more about the George Jackson '76 Initiative at fordhamprep.org/gji.
